United State of America.

District of Maryland, ss.
DISTRICT COURT, SEPT. TERM, 1897.
W. L. J. E. S. an und. power hath been filed in the district court of the United States for Maryland district, by John Stephen, Esq. attorney for the same, against a certain schooner or vessel called Virginia, or other wise called General Massena, her tackle, armament, apparel, and guns, praying a condemnation of the same for forfeiture and sale in satisfaction of a debt due the said schooner at the port of Baltimore, with intent that the said schooner or vessel should be employed in the service of a foreign state, to wit, in the service of the emperor of France and king of Italy, to commit hostilities upon the subjects and property of another foreign prince or state, to wit, upon the subjects and property of the king of the United Kingdom of Great-Britain and Ireland; the said United States then being at peace with the said king of the United Kingdom of Great-Britain and Ireland, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided: And whereas the Hon. James Houston, Judge of said court, hath ordered, do and directed Monday, the fifth day of October next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of the same day, for holding a court at the court-house, in the city of Baltimore, for the trial of the premises, agreeably to the prayer of the said attorney.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,
That the District Court will then and there be held for the said trial; and the owner or owners, and all persons who may have any interest therein, are hereby cited to be and appear at the time and place aforesaid, to show cause, if any they have, why a final determination should not pass.

Proposal

OF COLE & I BONSAL & JOHN VANCE & CO for publishing
A collection of original Poems.
By GARRETT BARRY, Esquire,
Of Baltimore, Attorney at Law
Nostris nec erubuit Sivas habitare Thalia.

AUTHOR'S ADVERTISEMENT.
Many of the following poems were written before the author attained his sixteenth year. The public must estimate their merit. The author will not assume to himself so much toicism as to express an indifference to their fate; but whatever that may be, he will at least have the consolation to reflect, that they do not contain one sentiment hostile to the strictest principles of religion and morality.

The work will be printed on a very superior quality thick post, and a handsome type. The publishers having determined to spare no expense, subscribers may rest assured the work shall be executed in a style which shall do honor to Baltimore printing.
It being at present impossible to ascertain the extent of the work, the publishers are unable to determine the price at which it shall be sold to non-subscribers; but they pledge themselves that, to subscribers, it shall not exceed 75 cents neatly bound in boards.

The extraordinary encouragement already afforded (more than three hundred names being obtained) has induced the publishers to commence the work. It is now in press, and it is expected will be ready for delivery some time in October.
A list of the subscribers' names will be annexed to the work.
Subscriptions received by the respective booksellers, and by the publishers.

A Certain Lady,

(Who passed by the name of Anderson) arrived here from the city of Washington, in a hack stage, on Thursday evening the 13th instant, and engaged lodgings for herself and two hired servants, in my house; and also entered two Gray Horses in my Stables, all leading them to be her property. This Lady left my house on Sunday morning last, without giving me any notice of her intention to depart, and left behind her the two servants and the horses above mentioned. I do therefore hereby request that she will come forward and pay her bill, otherwise the horses will be sold at the expiration of 10 days from the account thereof. As it is possible that some accident may have happened to this lady, so as to prevent her return, I shall therefore consider myself obliged to any person who will give me any information respecting her.

Five Dollars Reward

Strayed from the stable of the subscriber living at the Buck Tavern, on the road leading from Baltimore to the City of Washington, in Anne Arundel county, in the Park of Patuxent river and near Snowden's old Iron Works, at night, on the 14th inst. a Bright Bay HORSE, five or six years old, fourteen or fifteen hands high—has his mane hogged, has an old wound on the inner-side of his right hind knee joint, which is very notable—it makes the part of that leg very much larger than the same part of his hind thigh; and likewise the same brands on his fore shoulder; from the brand, many persons suppose him to have been raised by Charles Carroll of Carrollton. I bought him of Mr. Hugh Lecky, living on Fell's Point in Baltimore, & he purchased him in Baltimore; he started toward Baltimore, & I imagine he has endeavored to get there, or to some one of Carroll's plantations, most likely Elk Ridge, as he has large Plantations there. To any person who will bring home said horse, the above reward and all reasonable charges will be paid by LEWIS DUVALL, of Thomas.
