By the fast sailing ships Eliza, capt. Waterman, and Gold Hunter, capt. Vose, the former from Liverpool and the latter from London, the editors of the New-York Gazette have received London papers to the 16th ult. It will be seen, among the extracts which we have given, that the British have no wish to go to war with this country-and that the general expression of the public prints, indicate an ardent disposition to preserve the harmony of the two governments. All apprehensions of an embargo on American vessels had subsided-and the British government waiting with anxious solicitude the arrival of the dispatches sent out in the United Statesschooner Revenge, when the merits, of the pending misurderstanding would be discrused.

The British parliament was prorogued, by commission, on the 14th ult. The king's speech on this occasion, does not even hint at American affairs.

Insurance on American vessels from Liverpool had fallen to 3 guineas.

London, Aug. 14. A G ttenburgh mail arrived this mornng. It has brought an official account of the military operations at Stralsund to the 22d ult. The British troops did duty for the first time, and occupied the posts within that fortress on the 21st. Lord Cathcart, on the same day, left Stralsund for Rugen, to review the British troops on that island. who with the Swedes in that place, are, in future to be commanded by gen. Baron Toll. Mr. Sansom had an interview yesterday with Mr. Canning, on the subject of the misunderstanding with America. The minister informed him, that he had sent to the American envoys, to know whether they had received any further information : adding, "that if they had, our government was ready to enter into an amicable adjustment of all differences." The answer was, " that they had received no instructi-

The Russian officer, arrived from Milan on the 16th ult. brought orders from his sovereign for the cessation of the hostilities between the Turks and the Russians, in the Adriatic and Mediterranean.

A mail from Gottenburg arrived, this morning, bringing news from Gottenburgh of the 7th. which states, that on the 3d admiral Gambier's fleet passed the Sound suluting Cronberg Castle as it passed and receiving a salute in return. A great number of English ships of war and transpo ? also have passed Gottenburgh on the 5th and 6th.-They were probably the 2d and 3d expeditions. A letter from C penhagen informs us that orders have been received by the inhabitants in the Suburbs to prepare for lodging a large body of cavalry.-
