

BOSTON, October 2.

Surrender of Copenhagen.

Captain Pratt, who arrived last night, in 38 days from Amsterdam, informs, that Copenhagen was surrendered to the British on the 20th of August, without resistance. Mr. Munroe had advised, that American vessels in Holland ready for sea, should go north about, and others should remain a short time to see the issue of our negotiations in England.

NEW-YORK, Oct. 8.

Capt. Latham informs, that the United States frigate Constitution, was in Gibraltar bay, 35 days since, taking in water, and was to sail for America in a few days. From the Paris Avis of the 27th August. Extract from the Project of a law laid before the legislative body at Paris the 25th August, by order of the emperor.

Interest contracted for cannot exceed in civil affairs five per cent. nor in commercial affairs six per cent.

Legal interest in civil matters, will be five per cent. and in commercial affairs six per cent. without deduction.

When it appears in the course of the lawsuit that the lender habitually demands usurious interest, the tribunal before which it is pleaded may condemn the lender to a fine which cannot exceed the half of the capital of the sums sued for.

If in the transaction there should appear to have been any swindling, the accused shall be turned over to the correctional police, and the punishment shall be, besides the aforesaid fine, an imprisonment which cannot exceed two years.

No innovation is understood to take place in the stipulations of interest by contracts or other acts made before the date of the publication of the present law.

PHILADELPHIA, October 9.

No arrivals at this port yesterday.

A letter from B. deaux of Aug. 30, says, "There is an embargo on Portuguese vessels, and troops are marching through here daily, it is said for that country. Our markets are improving. We yesterday refused 48 sous for tolerable St. Domingo coffee. Cotton has risen very much. Louisiana was placed yesterday as high as 237 50. Pot ashes and Beeswax in demand. Sugars are heavy, but as the fall approaches we expect a demand. Brandies and wines are fallen."

Eagle Artillery Company—The members of this company, are ordered to meet at the captain's house on Monday, the 19th inst. precisely at 1 o'clock, in complete uniform. JOHN TYLER, Sec'y.

Notice is hereby given,

That application will be made to the general assembly at the next session to annex to, and make part of the city of Baltimore, all lots and parcels of ground, situated on the north side of the city, and lying south of a line beginning at the intersection of North Charles and the north side of Pleasant-street, and thence running east, bounded by the north side of Pleasant-street, to Holliday street, thence due east until it strikes the line of the city; or so much thereof as shall be thought expedient. October 7, 1807.

FEDERAL GAZETTE.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10.

Dispatches have been received by government from our ministers in London.

We are informed that it is the opinion of the president, that the state of affairs between the two countries does not present the most agreeable aspect.

[Wash-ton Federalist.]

The court-martial appointed to try com. Barron, met on board the Chesapeake yesterday; but in consequence of the indisposition of the commodore, it was adjourned sine die. It is said that L. W. Tazewell, esq. is appointed judge advocate. He is now in Richmond, as a witness on the trial of col. Burr.

[Norfolk Herald.]

Delegates from Frederick County to the general assembly of Maryland. Benjamin Biggs, Thomas Hawkins, Henry Kuhn, David Shriver.

The Delegates from Somerset county to the assembly for this session, are, General John Gale, George W. Jackson, General Levin Winder, and Dr. Robert King.

It appears, from the report of the commissioners sent out by the Governor of Ohio, that the Indians near Greenville are not hostile. The Prophet is said to preach peace; being thus taught not by man, but by the Great Spirit. Blue Jacket, in a talk addressed to the commissioners, stated as their chief complaint, that the government agent at Fort Wayne, (Mr. Wells) was disliked.

From the Richmond Enquirer of October 7.

The examination of evidence has approached a close.

On Saturday, Chandler Lindsley was called again on the part of the accused. A few more questions were propounded to Gen. Wilkinson and his examination was concluded. He was followed by Matthew Ellis, by captain Bissell, by Judge Todd (Federal judge of the district of Kentucky) by col. McKee, and Mr. Gates, by Elijah Jones, Thomas Bodley and Charles Lynch. (Claimant of the Ouchita land) who were called on the part of the accused. In the course of the day, the deposition of Charles Fenton Mercer, esq. was read, and Mr. Pointdexter was again called in at the request of the accused.

On Monday, Col. Gaither was called in by the accused to invalidate general Eaton's testimony; with what little success the publisher was to judge. Gen. Eaton himself spoke at considerable length. Capt. Wm. Tinsley was also called on part of the accused. Silas Dinmore, agent to the Choctaw nation, was introduced on the part of the United States to prove the situation of New-Orleans during the disturbances in the western country. Lemuel Henry of the Mississippi territory was called in on the part of the United States to prove certain declarations of col. Burr, and Mr. New, made at Washington M. T. In course of the day, the depositions of Mr. Prevot and of Julien Dupierrest were read.

Yesterday was occupied in the examination of Major Bruff, called on the part of the accused, and his cross-examination by general Wilkinson.

Mr. Wickham announced that all the evidence was closed, on the part of the accused. Mr. Hay announced that he had no other witnesses to produce but lieutenant Jackson, who was on his way from N. Orleans, and might be expected this day.

Perhaps the argument on the evidence will begin this day.

We have republished no part of the criminalations and recriminations, which have lately appeared in the "Virginia Gazette," at Richmond, from the pens of Luther Martin, esq. and gen. Eaton. In the last number of that paper, the general has "for the last time" noticed "investigator." He introduces the following:

AFFIDAVITS.

Baltimore, 17th August, 1807.

Personally appeared before me Samuel Chase, esq. one of the associate judges of the supreme court of the United States, John Campbell White, M. D. of the city of Baltimore, and made oath on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, that on or about the tenth of November last, or sometime between the 8th and 14th of said month, in a conversation with Luther Martin, esq. of the city of Baltimore, Mr. Martin observed, that he had not the least hesitation in saying, that before twelve months the Western States would be separated from the Atlantic States, that he Mr. Martin, had it from the best authority.

(Signed)

JOHN CAMPBELL WHITE. Sworn before SAMUEL CHASE. State of Maryland, Anne-Arundel county, ss. Oc. 7th 21st, 1807.

Personally appeared before the subscriber, a justice of the peace for the county aforesaid, Edward Hall, and made oath on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, that sometime in the month of September last, in a conversation which he had with Luther Martin (late attorney-general of Maryland) respecting col. Aaron Burr. Mr. Martin remarked, that col. Burr would be emperor of Louisiana in 6 months. To which this deponent replied, from the character of colonel Burr he had too high an opinion of his talents and judgment to believe he would undertake so mad a project as a separation of the western from the Atlantic states. To which Mr. Martin replied, You are mistaken; I have no doubt but Burr will be declared emperor of Louisiana in less than six months, and as soon as he is, I shall pay him a visit. To which this deponent replied, You have been in the habit, Mr. Martin, of prosecuting a number of persons for different offences—take care that you are not in turn prosecuted for treason.

Sworn before JOHN SANDS.

District of Maryland, viz: Philip Graybell, of lawful age, residing in the city of Baltimore, maketh oath on the holy Evangelists of Almighty G. A. that some time during the summer of 1806, he this deponent, was standing at his store door in Market-street, in the said city, and Luther Martin came up and addressed himself to this deponent, to the following effect: That Aaron Burr was to divide this country, and that the Allegany Mountain would be the division line.

Signed, PHILIP GRAYBELL. Sworn before SAMUEL CHASE. The foregoing are copies of affidavits filed in the circuit court of the United States for the Virginia district.
