James C. Neilson

RESPECTFULLY informs the public, that he has returned from Europe, and imported in the ships Globe, from London, William Wilson, from Amsterdam, Diana, and Canton, from Liverpool, selections of articles in the different lines of Dry and Fancy Goods, Jewelry, Platered, silver and Japanned Wares, fine Cutlery, Ironmongery, Saddlery, Cabinet and Tunbridge Wares and Toys, Perfumery, Stationery, Porcelain, Cut Glass, and Liverpool Table China, Ladies' and Gentlemen's Silk and Beaver Hats, Dress Boots and Shoes, Hosiery, &c. &c. &c. &c. which he will open for sale on Tuesday next, the 13th instant, at the store formerly occupied by the late J. M. Somerville, Esquire, No. 83, Market-street, opposite the end of South-street. An enumeration of the particular articles being too extensive for this mode of information, he will have printed catalogues ready for the first day of sale.
Those Goods have been selected by himself at the places of their respective manufactures with the utmost circumspection, and he hopes will be found of inspection to warrant the assertion, that they are of such quality as would only be purchased for the expectation of a private order; and consequently very superior to those usually imported for general sale, with the additional advantage of choice to the purchaser.

By the first arrivals from Bordeaux, he hopes to receive a small supply of elegant articles of the manufacture of Paris.

To the Public.

The public attack against me in Saturday's "Observer" should have been treated with silent contempt, had it not plainly appeared to me as the effect of my non-compliance with a requisition previously made. To enable the public duly to appreciate Mistress Beatrice's disinterested zeal in their behalf, I will inform them of the circumstances to which I allude.
On the 21st of October I received a letter, the purport of which, as near as I can recollect, was as follows:

"In the course of the theatrical season many attempts will be made to injure you, by means of newspaper criticisms. I feel for you, as you have many enemies, particularly in the Theatre. A weekly publication (printed at No.
4, Charles-street) may assist you. It is not the Editor's intention to criticize generally on the performers; but should an attack be made, it can be answered in your favour. The subscription is five dollars a year; the paper is circulated all over the continent." &c. &c.

"BEATRICE KNOWS." "Could I have anticipated so infamous an attack, I would not have to regret having mislaid this letter. It was impossible to foresee that an accomplished lay, and a Translator too, could have behaved thus; but for the satisfaction of any person who doubts my word, I will make affidavit."

When I first heard of this would be criticism, I inquired who wrote it? and was answered Mrs. A. — On seeing the "Observer," which contained it, perceived the fictitious title of the editor; which brought to my recollection the letter I had received. I immediately called at the printing office to inquire further, before I would publish this — when I found the number and every other circumstance accord with the letter. Beatrice is not sorry I did not subscribe; for no doubt she has made more by her scurrilous stuff than the five dollars she applied for — as all my enemies (with whom she seems to be so well acquainted) if not steady, will soon become subscribers to the "Observer."

I never have, nor will I, BUY PRAISE; nor do the feeble attempts to injure me trouble me in the least. So long as the audience, assembled to witness my performance, be slow on me their approbation, I shall laugh at BEATRICE and her accomplices.

GRAND LOTTERY, BALTIMORE, Authorized by an act of the general assembly of the state of Maryland; and the scheme of which Lottery is the most brilliant ever offered to the citizens of the United States, containing, besides a large number of other valuable prizes,

1 prize of - - - 30,000 dollars, 1 do. of - - - 15,000
1 do. of - - - 10,000
2 do. of - - - 5,000
8 do. of - - - 1,500
7 do. of - - - 1,000

And not two blanks to a prize. The scheme contains 21500 tickets, 10,000 of which are actually sold to a company of gentlemen in New-York, to whom the management has obligated themselves to commence the drawing on THURSDAY, the 31st day of December next.

To draw 500 tickets per day, and four days drawing in every week, making 2,000 tickets drawn per week, which will complete the drawing in less than eleven weeks.

TICKETS & SHARES are now selling in a variety of numbers, at ten dollars each, at C. & R. WAITE's truly fortunate Lottery Office, Corner of Market and Charles streets, Baltimore.

From the rapid sale of the Tickets in every part of the union, an advance will shortly be put on them, of which an advertisement will soon appear in the public prints.

The grandeur of the scheme of the above lottery, together with an assurance from the managers that the lottery will positively commence drawing on the 31st day of December next, have been a sufficient inducement for the subscribers to come to the city of Baltimore for the express purpose of facilitating the sale of the tickets.

G. & R. WAITE.
One of the above firm will personally attend the drawing daily, to take down the numbers correctly, as will also one of their clerks. All prizes sold by G. & R. Waite will be paid by them, and a printed list of all prizes drawn will be published by them and delivered to their customers once a fortnight during the drawing.

The next New-York Lottery will not commence till April next.

Distant Adventurers, accompanying their orders with bank notes of any description, to either of Waite's offices in New-York or Baltimore may have Tickets and Shares forwarded to any amount with the utmost punctuality, and the earliest advice sent them of their success. All prizes sold by G. & R. Waite will be paid by them.
