At a meeting of the Officers, of the 39th regiment, on Tuesday Evening the 6th October, the following resolution was adopted unanimously, and ordered to be published:
Whereas the existence of all governments depends upon an efficient military force, to resist external attacks, and repress internal tumult and faction; and the dangers from standing armies to liberty, renders a well organized militia the only safe defence for free governments:
Resolved therefore unanimously, by the commissioned Officers of the 39th regiment, that the commissioned officers of the 3d brigades, be invited to meet at the Pantheon, on Monday, the 26th of October, at 6 o'clock in the evening, to take into consideration the most effective means to promote, and perpetuate the military spirit which now prevails, and to devise the most effectual means of increasing military knowledge.
By order,

who took them on board, and treated them with the greatest humanity. The captain,

The commissioners appointed by the respective states of New-York and New Jersey to ascertain the boundary line between the two states, after being in session at Newark about nine days, have separated without coming to any determination but to disagree. The commissioners of New-Jersey presented a formal written claim to Staten-Island—to one half of the river at the Narrows—to Ellis's and Bedlow's Island and to one half of the river as far as New-Jersey extends along its shores! This is quite as much of modesty as we could well expect from New-Jersey. It is hardly necessary to observe that our commissioners decided upon an adjournment when this trifling claim was offered. [American Crt.]

CHARLESTON, Sept. 29.
Ship Argo, Lockyer, of and from Philadelphia to Havana, was cast away on the 17th September, about three leagues to the westward of Little Isaac Rock. On the 19th, the crew and passengers left the ship in the boats, when one of them drifted in to the Gulf stream, where she was filled in with by the ship Comet, capt. Driscy, having the honorable David Clarke, M. C. on board; who, on receiving information that another boat was drifting about, cruised for her three days, when the crew were found upon the great Isaac rock. To this humane and generous act of Mr. Clarke, we the crew and passengers indebted for their lives, nor can we bestow too much applause upon a man who will for three days sail out of his course to rescue his fellow creatures from misery and death. Captain Lockyer and crew, and Messrs. Moore Wharton, Courtauld, and Parry, passengers, arrived at this port yesterday in the Comet.

the crew and passengers indebted for their
and crew, and Messrs. Moore Wharton,
this port yesterday in the Comet.

17th September, about three leagues to the westward of Little Isaac Rock. On the
in the boats, when one of them drifted in
in with by the ship Comet, capt. Driscy,
having the honorable David Clarke, M. C.
