The THIEF

Who broke into my Counting-Room last night, and stole out of my desk a black Morocco Case, containing Bank Notes, Notes of hand, Debenture Certificates, &c. is entitled to my thanks for throwing the same into my yard, without disturbing the two last mentioned securities, and as I can assure him that advice is forwarded to stop the pay ment of the 10 notes of 20 dollars each, on the Newbern Bank, and one .0 dollar note on Cape Fear Bank, which can be of no use to him, but the recovery of which will save me the trouble and expence of giving bonds of indemnity to those Banks, I have to request he will be good enough to return them in the same way that he did the case, or thro' the medium of the Post Office, as may be nost convenient—he may as well include in the same packet, a dirly 5 dollar Note, on the Bank at Middlebury, and I recommend the thief (who by the way has frequently received the reward of his labor at my hand out of the case above mentioned) to increase the packet by adding the 2 yellow looking notes of 20 dottars each, on the Office of Discount and Deposit in this city-An attempt to pass them may be fatal to him.
