COMMUNICATION.
Departed this transitory life, at Goven's town, on the 29th October, JOHN GRIMES, formerly a respectable inhabitant of Philadelphia, leaving behind him a numerous family to lament the irreparable loss.

O, Christian, pause! think on thy frail & tottering state—nor value too highly any worldly gift. At six o'clock this man was well, enjoying his wife's affection and his children's smiles; at eight, he was snatched away, alas! forever, from all his heart held dear.

SHERIFFALTY.

Beale Spurrier,

With some assurance of support, offers himself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff at the next election: he conceives himself competent to the duties of the office, and respectfully solicits the patronage of the voters of Baltimore county and city. Should the suffrages of his fellow-citizens place him in office, he will keep in grateful remembrance the source from whence he obtained it: and although he has not pledged to offer that his official conduct shall give universal satisfaction, is yet willing to say, that his discretion and powers shall be exercised with moderation, and that he never will be the instrument by which a sacrifice of feeling or property shall be made to gratify the caprice of any individual.

September 23.

Notice is hereby Given,

That the subscriber intends applying to the judges of Washington county court, at the next October term, for the benefit of the insolvent laws passed in 1805, and 1806, to relieve him from debts for which he is liable, and which he is unable to pay.
