And placed for sale at the Bookstore of Messrs. Warner and Hanna, (S E. intersection of Baltamore and Gay streets,) twentyour sets of " CLOWE'S DEFENCE OF THE DOCTRINES OF BARON SWEDENBORG, in two pamphlets, together with the objectional remarks of the "Christian Observer" on cery line, which he offers at pleasing prices the former of these defensive phamphlets.

Price per Sei $ 25. [N BI may not be improper, on the appearance of the above advertisement, to remark, that the learned and pious defender of Swelenborgiamsm, there lluded to is no other h in the present rector of St John's Parish, mitted the aforesaid phamphlets (per the ship Canton,) to the mi ister of the New Jerusa lem Church in Baltimore, accommonded by Platillas Royales the following friendly and interesting letter; Bretagnes, the insertion of which while it may circulate Bramantes, some pleasing intelligence to the friends of the New Jerusalem Church in this part of the world, will not, it is presumed, oftend any o the liberal and pious ministers or members of the Protestant E. Church 7 MANCHESTER, May 16, 187.

My very Dear Sir,
Though laboring under much bodily indisposition, which renders the use of my pen burdens one, I cannot for go the opportunity of inclosing a few lines to you, in the packet of books which our society here with send you because I wish to acknowledge, thankfully, the receipt of your two last favors, the first bearing date, June 1st, 18 6, the second Nov. 18, 1806. You must however excuse my replying to the questions contained in them, until I acquire morelstrength, when, if ever the time arrives, I shall be happy to resume my pen, and give you the real sentiments of my mind. You will perceive, from the contents of the packet, that I have been again using the weapons of ontroversy, in relying to the remarks of the "Cristian Observer," on the "Piai Answers," &c. Of this last work you expressed a wish to have fifty copies sent you, but on mentioning the business to our society they thought it would be best to send you 25 copies of the "Prain Answers," and 25 of the answer to the Christian Observer. From the Copy of our report, which is also inclosed in the packet, you will perceive what liberty we have taken with your letters and how we have endeavored to give circulation to the important information which they contain. This, I trust, will be a motive with you for continuing your interesting communicati It will give you pleasure to hear that the new doctrines are making their way, gradually, in this country, through all orders and ranks of people, and this I trust not only by an illumination of the understanding through the knowledge of the truth, but by the more cious purification of the will and life from all defiled affections, through the influence of a heavenly love and charity. We already rackon up between thirty and lorty of the regular clergy, who have become devout readers

You have perhaps been informed of the general conference of the ministers of the New Church, which was held at London last week: Nothing has yet come down to the society here respecting what was done on the eccasion, but we expect their report will be shortly published.

I have now exhausted all my strength, and must therefore conclude with my best prayers for yourself and the society over which you preside, that you may be enriched with every blessing from the Father of mercies, & attain unto all the peace of the New Jerusalem. In the spirit of this prayer, I remain, dear Sir, more than words can express, your affectionate friend and brother. JOHN CLOWES.
