Fortuna Favet Fortibus.

Such a charm is wealth to man,
Many are his ways to seek it;
Happy he, if he can,
Find away to get and keep it.
What a silly Fool was I,
All my wits were bent on pleasure,
Now, I own it with a sigh,
Pleasures lengthen'd, shorten treasure.
When my little all seem'd gone,
Still I thought to keep it up;
Beauty shun'd me as a drone,
And cold censure held the cup.
As my wants increas'd my case,
So increas'd my tortures.
Never should a man despair,
Hope is all our earthly good.
Tho' of society all bereft,
Something whispered, trust to Chance!
And with little, little left,
Found enough for future wants.
Chance has prov'd my greatest friend,
All the Parasites are fled,
Should they come for certain ends,
They May flatter I'll upbraid.
But if repentant won't do,
They may come to me to greet, Sirs! says I; I've done with you,
Try your Chance in Market-street.

2 do. of - - - 5,000
8 do. of - - - 1,500
7 do. of - - - 1,000

And not two blanks to prize. The scheme contains 21500 tickets, 10,000 of which are actually sold to a company of gentlemen in New-York, to whom the managers have obligated themselves to commence the drawing on THURSDAY, the 31st day of December next.

To draw 500 tickets per day, and four days drawing in every week, making 2000 tickets drawn per week, which will complete the drawing in less than eleven weeks.

TICKETS & SHARES are now selling in a variety of numbers, at ten dollars each, at

WAITE'S

OFFICE, CORNER OF MARKET AND CHARLES STREETS,
BALTIMORE.

From the rapid sale of the Tickets in every part of the union, an advance will shortly be put on them, of which an advertisement will soon appear in the public prints.

The grandeur of the scheme of the above lottery, together with an assurance from the managers that the lottery will positively commence drawing on the 31st day of December next, have been a sufficient inducement for the subscribers to come to the city of Baltimore for the express purpose of facilitating the sale of the Tickets.

One of the above firm will personally attend the drawing daily, to take down the numbers correctly, as will also one of their clerks. All prizes sold by G. W. Waite will be paid by them, and a printed list of all prizes drawn will be published by them and delivered to their customers once a fortnight during the drawing. The next New-York Lottery will not commence till April next.

Distant Adventurers, accompanying their orders with bank notes of any description, to either of Waite's offices in New-York or Baltimore may have Tickets and Shares forwarded to any amount with the utmost punctuality, and the earliest advice sent them of their success. All prizes sold by G. & H. Waite will be paid by them.
