New Mode of Swindling.

200 Dollars Reward
FOR APPREHENDING THE CHIEF
ACTOR, RICHARD HARDEN.
Late of Pratt street, in the city of Baltimore, Grocer, who left said city, on or about the 24th day of October last. The Public would confer an obligation on a person from whom he purchased a large quantity of goods, which, together with others purchased from different persons, he sold to many others, chiefly to a Mr. Shamway, to whom he sold upwards of 6000 dollars worth; (Shamway, had been his Clerk); and likewise on whom he prevailed to endorse notes to a considerable amount, if they would forward a few lines, mentioning where he may be found, to E. F. Carr, the Editor of the Federal Gazette.
The said R. A. is about 28 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, stout made black complexion, a mark on his jaw like that of an evil, down look, and is a Talker by trade. When in Baltimore he was dressed in black, with a crape on his hat; he seems to have a general knowledge of business, and of the country; is a native of New-England. He formerly lived in Charleston, S. C. and in Newbern, N. C. The person he has taken in, as above stated, is a Man with a large family, from whom he has taken nearly the whole means of support for them and himself, and therefore claims the assistance of the public, in detecting him. Should the person giving information (so that he can be arrested) require it, the above reward will be given, by the writer of this, who may be known on application to the Editor of the Baltimore Federal Gazette; and his name never be mentioned.

N. B. It is supposed that Harden has gone to New-York, followed by several of his associates; at which place he will probably pursue a trade to which he is no stranger.
The Editors of the Norfolk Gazette, Philadelphia Gazette, New-York Gazette, and Boston Gazette, are requested to publish the above to the amount of two dollars each, and send their accounts to this office.
