200 Dollars Reward.
ELOPED from the subscriber early in the morning of the 28th instant, a bright mulatto Man named DICK, (sometimes called RICHARD,) 25 years of age, 5 feet ten inches high, well made, strong and active, has been bred to house-business, but for several years past has acted as hostler, drayman, & gardner all which employments he is well acquainted with He is so light colored and can acquit himself so well in conversation, that it is highly probable he may attempt to pass as a free man. He has a variety of good clothes with him, which renders it difficult to describe his dress, as he is very artful and will probably change them. He wore when he left this a new blue surtout coat of fine coating, with black velvet cape, a white hat and boots.
He was accompanied by another mulatto Man, named THORNTON, the property of Robert Hening, esq. for the last two years hired to Mr. Wm. Bell, Tavern Keeper, in this town; he is about the same height of Dick bow legged and not quite so stout; he is also very likely, has a variety of good clothes, and both have plenty of money.
It is believed they would cross the Potomac & endeavor to get to Philadelphia, Baltimore, or Lancaster in Pennsylvania. I will give Fifty Dollars for securing Dick in any jail so that I get him again, Fifty more for bringing him home if apprehended out of the state. Mr. Hening I am well convinced will give a similar reward for Thornton. If the above slaves be taken a letter addressed to me by post will be immediately attended to. Or if apprehended in Baltimore or its neighborhood application to be made to CAMPBELL and RITCHIE of that city. JAMES VASS.

A Minister Wanted.
William and Mary Parish, in Saint Mary's county, is vacant, and a Minister much wanted. All the advantages taken into view, this may be considered as one of the best country parishes in the state; it has belonging to it a glebe, containing upwards of 300 acres of most valuable farming Land, which, when well cultivated, has never failed to yield a handsome support for a family; it lies in a healthy, thick settled neighborhood, on a large extensive creek, abounding at all seasons of the year with the finest fish and oysters, with a comfortable Dwelling House, with three rooms on a floor, and all necessary out houses; the annual value may be estimated at 200 dollars, the vestry having refused that sum for it for the ensuing year, and the subscriptions have generally amounted to 300 dollars per annum. To a Clergyman wishing a permanent settlement, these, with the other advantages attached to the situation, merit attention.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

By the brig Jane, capt. Danford, the Editor of the New-York Gazette have received Cork papers to the 20th of Nov. cantaining London dates to the 14th inclusive, two days later than our former advices. Not a syllable is mentioned about the English [retaliating] blockading decree. which, it was said, would be Gazetted on the 14th. If the British government does not declare France and her dependencies in a state of blockade, it is most devoutly to be hoped that our government will soon raise the Embargo on all vessels trading to England and her possessions: and thereby arrest the dreadful calamity occasioned by the sudden stoppage of our commerce.
The following articles are extracted from the last paper—it will be seen that the British government has intercepted highly important dispatches from the French minister in this country to Talleyrand.

LONDON, Nov. 14.

Yesterday Sir Sidney Smith with 5 sail of the line, sailed from Plymouth, to touch at Cork, to be joined by the Hibernia of 120 guns, which sailed on Saturday. Sir Sidney is to transfer his flag from the London to this ship. It is impossible yet to form any idea of the magnitude of this expedition, or its destination. The naval part will sail in a separate division, and will, as in the case of the Copenhagen expedition, precede the military. Among the troops to be embarked is the 11th regiment, was embarking at Plymouth. The squadron will stop at Cork, and take in the 3d and 25th, now waiting for transports.
Letters from Malta of September 28 mention that the British army at Alexandria, had embarked and were expected at Malta, to reinforce the army of Sicily. The 10th regiment had arrived at Gibraltar.
Mr. Sylvester, a messenger, was sent off from the foreign office at a late hour on Friday night, with dispatches. His destination a profound secret.
Some dispatches of a singular and highly important nature, were lately found on board the American ship Caroline, detained and brought into Plymouth. The Caroline, was from New-York for Cherbourg, and the dispatches were from the French minister in the United States to Talleyrand.—They are in the possession of government, and is said to have communicated some circumstances of high importance.
Several objects of Enterprize have been presented to administration, the occupation of Candia in the Mediterranean, and of Madeira and the Brazils.
Great damage has been done on the Dutch coast during the late tempest. The transport Augustus Cæsar, with 500 troops, is said to have been lost, and only 130 saved. Other transports, and a Danish 64, are said to have been wrecked.
Admiral Keates squadron, from the Baltic, has arrived off Yarmouth.
An article from Frankfort animadverts on Bonaparte's scheme of attacking our Eastern Possessions via Persia. An expedition is said to be concerting between France and Russia for this purpose, to which Persia is said to aid with a supply of 50,000 camels. We should be glad to see that force wasting itself in the deserts of Asia, which now threatens us on the shores of Europe. We are afraid Bonaparte is at present fully occupied with plans of nearer import than against India.
The trial of lord viscount Falkland, of H. M. ship Quebec, finished at Sheerness on Thursday. His sentence was, that he be dismissed the ship.
The ports which now remain under the Prussian dominion, are in a similar condition respecting British commerce, with those of France and Holland The decree of the Dutch government, just published, prohibits all trade in articles the produce or manufacture of this empire; or even to prevent the admission of ships into Dutch ports, suspected of containing such merchandize. Thus Prussia is not only robbed of her territory, but deprived of her trade.
The French, it appears have assumed the complete dominion of the Elbe. A letter of the first mentions, that they had taken possession of the guard ship at Cuxhaven; that they suffered no vessel to pass without the strictest search; and that, if there was the least reason to suspect she either came from an Englis port, or had British property on board. she was detained, and, in most cases, after a very loose and expenitious process, condemned. To give a greater effect to these measures, the French were about to
