Stop the Thief!

TWO HUNDRED DOLLLARS REWARD.

Absconded from my Bed-room last night, after having robbed me of my trunk, containing four hundred and sixty dollars Of the above sum two hundred dollars are in gold, one hundred & fifty in silver, & the rest in notes; also all my wearing apparel, together with all my papers. The Robber's name is JOHN SOLACE, is a Frenchman, cannot speak but very little English. It would be useless to try to describe his dress, because he will change them. He is about five feet four inches high, dark complexion, sunken eyes, short nose, full eye brows, large mouth and chin. He is likely to be dressed in sailor's Clothes. Whoever stops the said villian so that the money may be recovered shall have two hundred dollars reward, and all reasonable charges paid him, JOHN GUEROY, RIGGER, Allisana stree Fell's-Point.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

Ran-away from the subscriber on 26th December last, a Mulatto Man named TONEY, a blacksmith by trade: he is about 24 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches high—had on when he went away a dark cloth surtout coat and pantaloons—his right foot has been broken, which causes him to limp, and is much larger than the other. He travelled in the stage from Edenton to Suffolk, the 28th ult. I have understood he went by the name of Benjamin James while in Suffolk—I expect he will endeavor to pass as a free man. The above reward will be given to any person who will secure him in any jail so that I get him again, and all reasonable charges paid if delivered to me in Plymouth, North-Carolina.

The following Order to be published three weeks in the American and Federal Gazette, at Baltimore; the Maryland Gazette, at Annapolis; and the Republican Advocate, at Frederick-town; Maryland Herald, at Hager's-town; and the Star, at Easton.

Adjutant-General's Office,

ANAAPOLIS, 19th Dec. 1807.

WHEREAS the repeated orders and applications to several of the commanding officers of regiments and battalions for their returns, have hitherto proved abortive, I have now the Governor's order, as commander in chief of the militia of this State, explicitly to require officers, whose returns have been thus neglected to make them to me without delay. The time has arrived when the energies of our country shall be called for, but the call will be lost and ineffectual, unless our military orders are more strictly enforced, and more cheerfully obeyed.

SAMUEL T. WRIGHT,
Adjutant-General.

Land for Sale,

Within Eight Miles of Baltimore.

Adjoining the Lands of Cornelius Howard esq and Dr. Cromwell, and within half a mile of major Beam's Tavern on the Reister's-town Turnpike Road. The Land offered for sale is about 210 acres, fifteen acres are now in meadow and thirty more can easily be made, nearly one-fourth of the tract is covered with young thriving timber, and the residue of arable land, superior to almost any in the neighborhood, well adapted to the use of Plaister, and divided into convenient and well watered fields by good fences. The improvments are a good dwelling house, kitchen & out-houses, with a pailed garden and yard.

Also an Apple and Peach Orchard of choice fruit, it is presumed no person will purchase without first viewing the premises, therefore it is only necessary to remind the public that its contiguity to the city, on a fine Turnpike road and in a most exeellent neighborhood renders such a situation rare to be met with, particularly within that distance of Baltimore; few men in Maryland can boast of having a more healthy retreat. Those inclined to view the premises may apply to Mr. Thomas Darlington, residing thereon, and for terms of sale to the subscriber at the lower end of Bowly's wharf. ELIJAH WARFIELD.

Of the Nobility and the National Guards; Of the Clergy and the Municipalites; The Coffee-House of Surat; The Indian Cottage.

Extract from the Monthly Review, Vol. 75 page 522.

"This is a first rate publication. Its plan is irregular, but most extensive; for it takes in the whole compass of nature (that is, what we can see or conjecture of it,) both in the Physical and Moral world. It is in point of originality, one of the most remarkable productions we have met with, for besides a multitude of new ideas, the old ones acquire an aspect of novelty in passing through the author's pen, and we do not recollect any writer who has drawn so constantly from an internal fund of native genius and deep observation. He attacks, without respect of persons what he looks upon as erroneous; but his attacks are always conducted with decency, candour and amenity. He never quits the main ground of GENUINE RELIGION."

Extract from the Monthly Review, Vol. 34, new series.

"Of the Studies of Nature we formerly gave our opinion, which the suffrage of the Public for a period of fifteen years has abundantly confirmed We praised the work for the boldness and originality of the conception on which the plan was formed; for its comprehensiveness, being commensurate in a certain sense with nature itsel; for the native genius and deep research, with which the author treats, embellishes, and enriches his subject; and for the eloquent and lively diction in which he discusses topics, which, under the pen of an ordinary writer, would have been dull, elaborate, and revolting," &c. &c

CONDITION OF PUBLICATION.

It shall be printed in three handsome Octavo volumes, from the last London edition, embellished with five engravings, executed in the best manner, and be delivered to subscribers, handsomely bound, price 8 dollars —or $3 payable on delivery of the First Vol.
