Notice.

THE subscriber having taken out letters of administration from the orphan's court of Baltimore county, on the estate of his deceased father, Daniel Bowly, requests all persons indebted to said estate, to make payment to Mr Henry Thompson, No. 53, Smith's Wharf, who is duly authorised to receive the same; and all persons having claims are desired to present them properly authenticated to him for settlement.

WILLIAM L. BOWLY.

In virtue of the above notice, I particularly request that all Debts and Ground Rents now due the estate of D. Bowly, esq. deceased, and as they hereafter become due may be paid without delay, as here is the greatest necessity for punctuality on the part of Lessees. I hope due attention will be paid to this request, otherwise compulsory means will be resorted to. HENRY THOMPSON.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

Ran-away from the subscriber on 26th December last, a Mulatto Man named TONEY, a blacksmith by trade: he is about 24 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches high—had on when he went away a dark cloth surtout coat and pantaloons—his right foot has been broken, which causes him to limp, and is much larger than the other. He travelled in the stage from Edenton to Suffolk, the 28th ult. I have understood he went by the name of Benjamin James while in Suffolk—I expect he will endeavor to pass as a free man. The above reward will be given to any person who will secure him in any jail so that I get him again, and all reasonable charges paid if delivered to me in Plymouth, North-Carolina.

By Virtue of the powers vested in the Subscribers by an act of the general Assembly of the State of Maryland, will be offered at Public Sale, on the premises, on TUESDAY, the 22d day of March next, if fair, if not the next fair day

That Valuable and highly Improved,

FARM,

Late the residence of James Winchester, Esq deceased:

Situate in Baltimore county, about sixteen miles from the City of Baltimore, and about two miles west of the York turnpike road, in as healthy a neighborhood as any in the county. This Farm contains five hundred and twenty-six and a half acres, of fertile land, producing annually the most bountiful crops of all kinds of grain and grass, and watered with so many never failing springs, that the whole may be divided into as many fields as pleasure or fancy might suggest, with the advantage of water in each; with an abundance of the most beautiful and lofty thriving timber for the support of the Farm. There is about twenty acres of timothy meadow, well set and in high order, sixty more may be made at the small expence of cutting a water course, as the land has already been in cultivation; there is also about one hundred and twenty acres well set in red clover, which (judging from the past) will produce a luxuriant crop the ensuing summer with about sixty acres of winter crop in the ground, wheat and rye.

The buildings (which are nearly new, have in all been erected within the last seven years) consist of a large brick dwelling house, two stories high, with cellar, back buildings, and kitchen, all completely and elegantly finished, delightfully situated on an eminence commanding a view of the adjacent farms, and a public county road.

A spacious stone dairy supplied from a fountain of the purest spring water, which is conducted through pipes near the kitchen door and is amply sufficient for all the purposes of the Farm and a distillery. A large brick meat house, a brick ice house, a new frame office with stone chimney, a large frame corn house and grainery, with carriage house below; overseer's house, negro house, and all other necessary out-houses; also, a large handsome well built brick barn, forty feet wide and eighty long, with stables (under the whole) sufficient to contain fifty horses, with a fountain of water in the barn yard; also a small mill, almost new, with one pair of Cologne stones, erected for the purpose of grinding rye, corn and Plaister of Paris, for the use of the farm, but which might be turned to more productive purposes; also a very handsome falling garden in a high state of cultivation, well stored with the choicest vegetables, and a collection of the best fruits and vines from the most celebrated nurseries and vine yards in Pennsylvania and New-York. There is also on this farm, a large apple orchard, with an abudance of the best peaches and cherries.

The terms of sale will be one-fourth of the purchase money at the time of sale, the remaining 3 4ths, in three equal annual payments with interest from the day of sale, the payments to be secured by bonds with approved security, and the interest payable annually. The purchaser may have possession in 10 or 12 days after the sale—and on payment of the whole purchase money and interest as aforesaid, a deed will be given for said land, free and clear of all incumbrance. Either of the subscribers (or Mr. John C. Owings, living near the premises) will shew the farm to any person desirous to view the same.

W. WINCHESTER,
WILLIAM OWINGS,

Trustees for the sale of the real estate of J. Winchester, deceased,

At the same time and place, (immediately after the sale of the real estate) will be offered at Public Sale under authority of the Orphan's Court of Baltimore county, on terms that will then be made known. A variety of Stock and Farming Utensils, consisting of valuable Waggons, Horses, Milk Cows, Sheep, Hogs, Carts, Plows, Harrows, &c. &c.

Valuable Property—for Sale.

Will be offered at Public Sale on Thursday, the 25th instant at the vendue warehouse of Thomas Chase, in the city of Baltimore, the following highly valuable Property.

About 500 Acres of LAND,

Being part of a Tract called "Gay's Enlargement" situated about 4 1-2 miles from the City of Baltimore, and binding on the navigable waters of Back River, which afford several PROFITABLE FISHERIES, and abundance of Wild Fowl in their season. The stage road from Baltimore to Philadelphia, passes through this tract, which lies adjoining the lands of gen. Samuel Smith, Messrs. Robert Welsh, Nicholas Brice, Tobias Stansbury, and the late Daniel Bowly. It is remarkably well wooded with Hickory, white and black Oak, &c. from which large quantities of excellent Ship Timber, may be selected.

There is but a small quantity of the Land cleared, on which are erected two small tenements. The foundation of a House has been prepared and between fifty and sixty thousand Bricks lately Burnt for the purpose of erecting the building.

There are several excellent Springs of water on the premises.

Which will be sold in one entire Tract, or divided into Lots of between 12 and 25 acres, as may be judged most expedient. A plat of the Land may be seen a the vendue store of Mr. Chase, or at Mr. John Bouldin's.

The Terms will be made known on the day of sale, by the subscriber.
