Notice.

I have let my House, known by the name of the Fountain Inn, to Mr. John H. Barney, for a term of years; possession of which will be given on the 1st of April next; and I respectfully beg leave to recommend him to those gentlemen, who have heretofore favored me with their custom, and to the public in general, as being altogether competent to conduct such an establishment. I shall leave this city in the month of April, to take possession on the first of May following, of the Tontine Coffee House, in New-York; which is generally acknowledged to be one of the first establishments in the United States, both for information and accommodations.

The house will be opened for the accommodation of Travellers, on the first of May, and handsomely furnished. The furniture will be entirely new, and a choice quantity of the best Liquors, will be laid in, for the use of those gentlemen, who may honor me with their custom, and I further pledge myself every exertion in my power will be used, to give general satisfaction:

I am the Public's,
Obedient humble servant.

Notice.

THE subscriber, administrator of Robert Burrowes decd has reason to believe that the said Robert Burrowes in his life time, lent several sums of money to persons, on bond or note, and the surviving partner (of said Burrowes) Thomas Doyle having acknowledged in open Court, that he has destroyed many notes and other papers of value, the said Administrator desires all persons so indebted to Robert Burrowes decd or in any wise whatsoever, not to pay any other person but himself, as he has settled with said Doyle all partnership accounts, and no other person but said administrator can lawfully settle any claims of the said Burrowes. If the said notice is not attended to, and persons should pay any other person but himself, they may depend that on a discovery of the same, they will be prosecuted to the utmost rigor of the law.

WESCOTT & Co. WASHINGTON CITY,

A MINUTE, CORRECT AND IMPARTIAL

REPORT OF THE

Trial of Col. Aaron Burr,

ON AN INDICTMENT FOR

High Treason,

Before the Circuit Court of the United States, held in Richmond, May Term, 1807:

Including the whole of the testimony; the arguments of Counsel at length; opinions of the Court:

And also, all the proceedings during the Examinations and on his Trials for Treason and Misdemeanor.

The report of this important case now offered to the public, was taken in short hand by a Stenographer of eminence, employed for the special purpose, and who has been sworn to its fidelity and accuracy. It cannot fail being very interesting to the public generally, and particularly to gentlemen of the Bar.

The number of pages which the work, when completed, will contain, cannot yet be ascertained with precision; but, it is computed, that it will be comprized in about 1800 pages of an octavo size.

It will be delivered to subscribers, in boards, at the rate of 50 cents for each hundred pages it may make.

Subscriptions for the above report received at the Book store of Cole and Bonsal, where the first volume is ready for delivery. The second volume will be ready in a few days.

Baltimore Fire Insurance Company,

OFFICE, No. 6 SOUTH-STREET.

PROPOSALS

FOR INSURING

HOUSES, BUILDINGS, STORES, SHIPS IN HARBOUR, GOODS, WARES AND MERCHANDIZE, FROM LOSS OR DAMAGE BY FIRE.

THE Baltimore Fire Insurance Company being now organized, the President and Directors thereof feel a particular satisfaction in offering to their fellow citizens the means of alleviating the distress to which individuals throughout the United States are exposed, particularly in cities and towns, by affording them additional security to commercial transactions, facilitating internal intercourse, and thereby contributing to an increase of the wealth of society and do therefore offer the following conditions of Insurance against Fire, viz:

CONDITIONS OF INSURANCE.

I. All applications for insurance must be made at the office of the Company in writing.

II. In all applications for Insurance of property, the applicant must furnish an accurate and just description of the same—viz: Of what materials each building is constructed; whether occupied as private dwellings, or how otherwise; where situated; the name of the present occupiers; how situated with respect to other buildings. And in the insurance of goods, wares and merchandize, the place where the same are deposited, is to be described, also whether such goods are of the kind denominated hazardous, and whether any manufactory is carried on in the premises, all which is to be certified and attested in such manner as the nature of the case may admit. And if any person or persons shall insure his or their buildings or goods, and shall cause them to be described in the policy otherwise than they really are, so as the same be charged at lower premiums than would be otherwise demanded—or if such description be false or fraudulent, such insurance will be void and of no effect.

III. Goods held in trust or on commission, are to be declared as such; otherwise the policy will not extend to cover such property.

IV. Every policy of insurance, made by this company, shall be sealed with its seal, signed by the president and attested by the secretary; and the person for whose interest the insurance is made, must be declared and named therein; nor can any policy or interest therein be assigned but by consent of the company, expressed by endorsement made thereon.

V. No insurance will be considered as made or binding, until the premium is paid.

VI. Persons insuring property with this company, and who have already made other insurance on the same property, shall give notice thereof in writing, at the company's office before or at the time of the execution of the policy: And persons who, after insuring property with this company, have insurance made on the same property elsewere, shall, with all reasonable diligence, notify the same in writing, at the office of the company, and have the same endorsed on the policy, or otherwise acknowledged in writing; in default whereof, the policy shall cease, and be of no effect; and in case of loss, each party insuring shall be liable to the payment of a rateable proportion of the loss or damage which may be sustained.

VII. No loss or damage by Fire will be paid that may happen or take place in consequence of any Invasion, Civil Commotion, Riot, or Military or Usurped Power whatever.

VIII. Books of Accounts, Written Securities, Notes, Bills, Bonds, Deeds, Ready Money or Bullion, cannot be insured.

IX. Jewels, Plate, Medals, or other curiosities, Paintings and Sculptures, are not included in any Insurance, unless such Articles are specified in the Policy

X. All Persons insured by this Company, sustaining any Loss or Damage by Fire, are forthwith to give Notice to the Company, and as soon after as possible, to deliver in as particular an account of their Loss or Damage, signed with their own hands, as the nature of the case will admit of and make proof of the same by their oath or affirmation, and by their Books of Accounts, and other proper vouchers, as shall be reasonably required; and shall make oath, whether any and what other Insurance is made on the same property; and shall procure a certificate, under the hand of a magistrate, or notary public, (most contiguous to the spot where the Fire happened, and not concerned in such loss) that they are acquainted with the character and circumstances of the person or persons insured; and do know or verily believe, that he, she, or they really and by misfortune, and without fraud or evil practice, have sustained by such fire loss & damage to the amount therein mentioned; and until such affidavits and certificates are produced, the loss shall not be payable: Also, if there appears any fraud, or false swearing, the claimant shall forfeit his claim to restitution or payment, by virtue of his policy.

XI. In case any difference shall arise, touching any loss or damage, it may be submitted to the judgment of arbitrators, indifferently chosen, whose award in writing shall be binding on the parties. And when any loss or damage shall happen, the Company shall pay for the same in sixty days after the loss shall have been ascertained and proved, without allowance of discount, fees or any deduction whatever.

XII. Insurance may be made for seven years by paying the premium for six years, and for a less number of years than seven, a reasonable discount will be allowed.
