Land for Sale,

Within Eight Miles of Baltimore.

Adjoining the Lands of Cornelius Howard, esq. and Dr. Cromwell, and within half a mile of major Beam's Tavern on the Reister's town Turnpike Road. The Land offered for sale is about 210 acres, fifteen acres are now in meadow and thirty more can easily be made, nearly one-fourth of the tract is covered with young thriving timber, and the residue of arable land, superior to almost any in the neighborhood, well adapted to the use of Plaister, and divided into convenient and well watered fields by good defences. The improvments are a good dwelling house, kitchen & out-houses, with a pailed garden and yard.

Also an Apple and Peach Orchard of choice fruit, it is presumed no person will purchase without first viewing the premises, therefore it is only necessary to remind the public that its contiguity to the city, on a fine Turnpike road and in a most excellent neighborhood renders such a situation rare to be met with, particularly within that distance of Baltimore; few men in Maryland can boast of having a more healthy retreat. Those inclined to view the premises may apply to Mr. Thomas Darlington, residing thereon, and for terms of sale to the subscriber at the lower end of Bowly's wharf.

GEORGE HILL,

The Domestic Medical Guide,

For the use of families and young practitioners or students in medicine and surgery, being a complete practical system of Modern Domestic Medicine, exhibiting, in familiar terms, the latest and most important discoveries relative to the prevention, distinction, causes and cure of diseases by MEDICINE & DIET; particularly consumption of the lungs, asthma, indigestion, flatulence, gout, scrophula, palsy, rheumatisms, cancers, worms, nervous and bilious complaints, the diseases of children, &c &c.

To which are added,

A FAMILY DISPENSATORY, and a copious Appendix containing explicit instructions for the ordinary MANAGEMENT OF CHILDREN, and such cases and accidents which require immediate aid, &c.

By RICHARD REECE, M D
Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons in London—author of a Treatise on the Lichen Islandicus, in diseases of the lungs, &c.

First American from the fourth London Edition.

Thus say the Reviewers :—

"It is of importance that every man should be enabled to know something of the laws of Life, the nature of diseases, and the most rational modes of cure—For this purpose, Dr. Reece's Book is better adapted than any with which we are acquainted; It is more scientific and judicious than the Domestic Medicine of Buchan, which we have no doubt it will soon entirely supercede. Considered in this light, DR. REECE'S MEDICAL GUIDE is a most valuable performance

By Virtue of the powers vested in the Subscribers by an act of the general Assembly of the State of Maryland, will be offered at Public Sale, on the premises, on TUESDAY, the 2'd day of March next, if fair, if not the next fair day,

That Valuable and highly Improved,

FARM,

Late the residence of James Winchester, Esq deceased:

Situate in Baltimore county, about sixteen miles from the City of Baltimore, and about two miles west of the York turnpike road, in as healthy a neighborhood as any in the county. This Farm contains five hundred and twenty six and a half acres, of fertile land, producing annually the most bountiful crops of all kinds of grain and grass, and watered with so many never failing springs, that the whole may be divided into as many fields as pleasure or fancy might suggest, with the advantage of water in each; with an abundance of the most beautiful and lofty thriving timber for the support of the Farm. There is about twenty acres of timothy meadow, well set and in high order, sixty more may be made at the small expence of cutting a water course, as the land has already been in cultivation; there is also about one hundred and twenty acres well set in red clover, which (judging from the past) will produce a luxuirant crop the ensuing summer with about sixty acres of winter crop in the ground, wheat and rye.

The buildings (which are nearly new, have in all been erected within the last seven years) cosist of a large brick dwelling house, two stories high, with cellar, back buildings, and kitchen, all completely and elegantly finished, delightfully situated on an eminence commanding a view of the adjacent farms, and a public county road.

A spacious stone dairy supplied from a fountain of the purest spring water, which is conducted through pipes near the kitchen door and is amply sufficient for all the purposes of the Farm and a distillery. A large brick meat house, a brick ice house, a new frame office with stone chimney, a large frame corn house and grainery, with carriage house below; overseer's house, negro house, and all other necessary out-houses; also, a large handsome well built brick barn, forty feet wide and eighty long, with stables (under the whole) sufficient to contain fifty horses, with a fountain of water in the barn yard; also a small mill, almost new, with one pair of Cologne stones, erected for the purpose of grinding rye, corn and Plaister of Paris, for the use of the farm, but which might be turned to more productive purposes; also a very handsome falling garden in a high state of cultivation, well stored with the choicest vegetables, and a collection of the best fruits and vines from the most celebrated nurseries and vine yards in Pennsylvania and New-York. There is also on this farm, a large apple orchard, with an abudance of the best peaches and cherries.

The terms of sale will be one-fourth of the purchase money at the time of sale, the remaining 3 4ths, in three equal annual payments with interest from the day of sale, the payments to be secured by bonds with approved security, and the interest payable annually The purchaser may have possession in 10 or 12 days after the sale—and on payment of the whole purchase money and interest as aforesaid, a deed will be given for said land, free and clear of all incumbrance. Either of the subscribers (or Mr. John C. Owings, living near the premises) will shew the farm to any person desirous to view the same.
