The House proceeded to consider the amendment of the senate to the bill for the purchase of an additional number of ARMS, &c. [This amendment appropriates 150,000 dollars for the purchase of saltpetre and sulphur.] The amendment was agreed to.

The house proceeded to consider the amendment of the senate to the bill to remit the duties payable on the MONUMENT lately imported, to be erected in memory of the officers of the navy who fell before Tripoli in 1804. This amendment authorises the president to have the monument erected wherever he may think proper; and also appropriates 1000 dollars to defray the expence of its erection.

Mr. Nicholas moved that the amendments lie on the table. Lost.

Mr. Durell called for the ayes and noes on agreeing to the amendment. They were taken, and it was lost, ayes 48, noes 59.

* This bill was accompanied by the following document.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
March 3d, 1808.

SIR,

In answer to your letter of the 1st instant, I have the honor to state,

1. That the five per cent. reserved by the act of the 30th April, 1802, on the net monies received for public lands in the state of Ohio, sold since the 1st July, 1802, has amounted to the following sums, viz:

			dolls.	cts.
From 1st July,	1802 to 30th June,	1803	6,220	20
	1803	1804	8,810	17
	1804	1805	13,994	30
	1805	1806	31,442	20
	1806	1807	28,807	92
	1807 to 31 Dec.	1807	15,000
			104,294	59

And that the said 5 per cent will henceforth probably amount to 30,000 dolls. a year.

2. That of the 30,000 dolls. appropriated by the act of 29th March, 1806, there has been expended in laying out the Cumberland road from Cumberland to Brownsville, about . . . $ 10,000

That there may be wanting to comple the location, about 5,000

15,000

3. That contracts have been made for opening one half of the breadth of the said road, which, as verbally informed by one of the commissioners, will require about 3,000 dollars of the appropriation for the further improvement of the road.

4. That the portion of the road actually located and confirmed, no part of which exceeds an angle of five degrees, extends from the navigable waters of the Potomac, at Cumberland, to the navigable waters of the Monongahela at Brownsville (Red Stone Old Fort) and is stated, though no official report has been made to me, at about 70 miles.

5. That that road can be considered as a national object, only if completed as a turnpike, whereby all the flour and other produce of the western adjacent counties may be brought to a market on the Atlantic shores, and the transportion of all the salt and other commodities and merchandize whatever exported from the Atlantic ports to the western country generally may be reduced probably to one dollar per hundred weight.

And lastly, that the expence of completing that part of the road in such manner, is estimated at four hundred thousand dollars.

I have the honor to be,
Respectfully, sir,
Your obedient servant,
ALBERT GALLATIN.

Hon. John Montgomery, (of Md.)
Chairman, &c. in Congress.

☞ OFFICIAL DOCUMENT,

Communicated for the Federal Gazette.

A BILL,

For establishing trading houses with the Indian tribes: Read March 3, the first and second time, and committed to a committee of the whole house on Tuesday next.

Sect. 1. Be it enacted by the senate and house of Representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, That it shall be lawful for the president of the U. States to establish trading houses at such posts & places on the frontiers, or in the Indian country, on either or both sides of the Mississippi river, as he shall judge most convenient, for the purpose of carrying on a liberal trade with the several Indian nations within the United States, or their territories.

Sect. 2. And be it further enacted, That the president of the United States shall be authorized to appoint a superintendent of Indian trade, whose duty it shall be to purchase and take charge of goods intended for trade with the Indian nations aforesaid, and to transmit the same to such places as he shall be directed by the president; and he shall take oath or affirmation, faithfully to execute the trust committed to him, and that he will not directly, nor indirectly, be concerned or interested in any trade, commerce or barter, but on the public account; and he shall also give bond in the penal sum of twenty thousand dollars, with sufficient security, to be approved by the secretary of the treasury of the United States, truly and honestly to account for all money, goods, and other property whatever, which shall come into his hands, or for which in good faith he ought to account, and to perform all the duties required of him by this act; and his accounts shall be made up quarter-yearly, and transmitted to the secretary of the treasury.

Sect. 3. And be it further enacted, That the superintendent of Indran trade shall receive an annual salary of two thousand dollars, payable quarter-yearly at the treasury of the United States; and that all letters and packets to and from him, relating to the duties of his office, shall be free of postage.

Sect. 4. And be it further enacted, That the president of the United States shall be authorised to appoint an agent for each trading house established under the provisions of this act, and every such agent shall give bond with sufficient security in such sum as the president shall direct, truly and honestly to account for all the money, goods, and other property whatever, which shall come into his hands, and for which he ought so to account, and to perform all the duties required of him by this act.

Sect. 5. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each of the said agents to receive from the superintendant of Indian trade, and dispose of in trade with the Indian nations aforesaid, such goods as shall be transmitted to him by the said superintendant, to be received and disposed of as aforesaid, according to the rules and orders which the president of the United States shall prescribe; and every such agent shall take an oath, or affirmation, faithfully to execute the trust committed to him; and that he will not directly, nor indirectly, be concerned or interested in any trade, commerce, or barter, but on the public account: and he shall render an account quarter yearly to the superintendant of Indian trade, of all money, goods, or other property whatsoever, which shall be transmitted to him, or which shall come into his hands, or for which, in good faith, he ought to account; and he shall transmit duplicates of his accounts to the secretary of the treasury of the United States.

Sect. 6. And be it further enacted, That the prices of goods supplied to, and to be paid for by the Indians, shall be regulated in such manner, that the capital stock furnished by the United States, shall not be diminished.

Sect. 7. And be it further enacted, That during the continuance of this act, the annual sum of three thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby appropriated for the payment of the salary of the superintendant of Indian trade, and his clerks, to be paid out of any money in the treasury of the United States not otherwise appropriated.

Sect. 8. And be it further enacted, That during the continuance of this act, the president of the United States be, and he is hereby authorised to draw annually from the treasury of the United States a sum not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars, to be applied under his direction, to the payment of the agents, assistant agents, clerks and interpreters.

Sect. 9. And be it further enacted, That the sum of three hundred thousand dollars, including the sums heretofore appropriated, and applied to the like purpose, and exclusive of the salary of the superintendant of Indian trade, and the allowances to his clerks and to the agents, assistant agents, clerks and interpreters, be, and the same is hereby appropriated for the purpose of carrying on trade and intercourse with the Indian nations, in the manner aforesaid, to be paid out of any money in the treasury of the U. States, not otherwise appropriated.

Sect. 10. And be it further enacted, That if the superintendant, any agent or agents, their clerks, the clerks of the superintendant, or any person employed by him or them, shall purchase or receive from any Indian, in the way of trade or barter, any gun, or other article commonly used in hunting; any instrument of husbandry or cooking utensil, of the kind usually obtained by Indians, in their intercourse with white people, or any article of cloathing, except skins or furs, or if any of the said agents or clerks be directly or indirectly concerned in any trade, commerce or barter, but on the public account, he or they shall respectively forfeit a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars for each offence, and shall be removed from such office, agency or employment, to be recovered by action of debt, in the name and to the use of the United States, in any court having jurisdiction in like cases:—Provided, That no suit shall be commenced except in the state or territory within which the cause of action shall have arisen, or in which the defendant may reside.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the superintendant of Indian trade, under the direction of the president of the United States, to cause such furs, as are commonly used by hatters in the manufactory of hats, to be sold at public auction, reasonable public notice whereof shall be given previous to such sale in different parts of the U. States, making distribution of the same, in proportion to the demand of the market, and as may be deemed most advantageous to the United States, and upon such terms and conditions as shall be prescribed by the president of the United States; and that it shall be the duty of the said superintendent, under the direction, and upon such terms and conditions as shall be prescribed as aforesaid, to cause the peltries, and other furs; to be disposed of in such manner, as shall be deemed most advantageous to the United States.

Sec. 12. And be it further enacted, That the act entitled "an act for establishing trading houses with the Indian tribes," passed on the twenty-first day of Arpil, in the year one thousand eight hundred and six, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Sec. 13. And be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force for and during the term of three years, and no longer.

PORT OF BALTIMORE.

The ship Robert Bolton, Ives, from Liverpool to Savannah, laden with salt, foundered at sea on the 9th Jan. in lat. 27, 10, N. long. 37, 30, W. The crew, 15 in number, took to the long-boat, with two casks of water, four barrels of bread, and a barrel & a half of beef and pork, some bundles of cloathing, and their dog. After being 27 days in an open boat, and enduring innumerable hardships, they landed at Grand Feare (Guad.) whence they made their way to Point-Petre, where they were humanly treated by the Americans there.—The mate arrived here in the brig Ann, capt. Montseratt. The mate, Mr. Peter Burr, confesses his many obligations to capt. Clough, of the ship Northern Liberties, and captain George Thomas, of the ship Pennsylvania, both belonging to New-York, and to captain Monseratt, of the brig Ann, in which vessel he arrived at this port.

American vessels left at Point-a-Petre, [Guad.] February 12, 1808:—The new ship Northern Liberties, captain Clowe, of and from New-York; the ship seized and the captain confined on board the Guard ship.

Ship Washington, of and for New-York, taking in cargo.

Brig Eliza, captain Gifford, of Philadelphia, to sail for Charleston in 3 days.

Brig Margaretta, of Baltimore, capt. John Davis, her outward cargo yet on board.

Brig Albert, of and for Newport, captain Freeman, to sail in 10 or 12 days.

Three schooners, names unknown.

ENTERED,

Ship Mary & Eliza, Simmons, Havana
Brig Ann, Monserrat, Guadaloupe
Betsy, Low, Salem

From the Merchants' Coffee-House Books.

March 8.

Arrived, ship Rose, Johnson, 60 days from Amsterdam—ballast—Cornthwait and Yarnall. Sailed from the Texel 6th Jan. in co. with ship Minerva, Barns, for Baltimore, saw her the 14th Jan. off the Isle of Wight. Spoke nothing on the passage except a Guernsey privateer off Madeira.

Also, ship Mary and Eliza, Simmonds, 20 days from Havanna—coffee and molases—Lemuel Taylor. Brings nothing new.

The subscribers are specially authorized by an act of the last Legislature to dispose of Tickets in the following Lottery, they have also undertaken to draw it.

It is expected the drawing will take place at Mr. George Beam's Tavern, Baltimore county, on the first Friday in May next, and be completed in six weeks thereafter.

An examination of the scheme will satisfy the inquirer that there is very little more than one and an half Blanks to a prize and though the prizes are small when compared to some of the Mammoth Lotteries, yet few Lotteries hold forth greater advantages to purchasers taking into consideration the price of Tickets which is ☞ Only Three Dollars.

The Prizes will be paid agreeably to the Scheme, 30 days after the completion of the drawing. But all prizes which may be sold by the subscribers, will be paid if demanded as soon as drawn.

Tanners take Notice!

FOR SALE,
A most excellent Tanyard,

Of which a very great and extraordinary bargain will be given, situated in Shepherd's Town, Virginia, with a never failing stream of water running through it, and a wheel that raises the water in great abundance for the use of the yard. There are four lots in the enclosure, and the improvements are, a Bark and Mill House, 120 feet long, one brick building, 48 feet long, wherein are a Currying Shop, a room for unfinished leather, and a Smoke-House; one other Brick House for storing and selling out finished leather, a Lime House, Stuffing Shop, and Garner for ground bark; with 37 Vatts of different sizes, and room for one hundred more. There is also in the same enclosure an excellent and beautiful Dwelling House, sixty feet by twenty-four, two stories high, with a piazza the whole length, a kitchen & hall; the whole finished, & an excellent well of limestone water, with a pump and dairy. The whole of the enclosure is planted with fruit and other trees. Also, a convenient Barn, Stables and Garden.

This is a most capital piece of property, and can hardly be exceeded by any situation that is to be met with. Shepherd's Town is 18 miles from Hagerstown, 70 miles from the City of Washington, and 75 miles from Baltimore. It is on the west bank of the Potomac River in a high and remarkably healthy situation. The river will afford it an abbundant supply of bark, when other places fail.

Any person wishing to purchase may know the terms by applying to the editor of the Federal Gazette, Baltimore, or to the subscribers on the premises.
