Just Published in Philadelphia AND FOR SALE BY GEO. HILL, Medical Reports ON THE EFFECTS OF WATER, COLD AND WARM, As a remedy in Fever and other Diseases, whether applied to the surface of the body, or used internally. (Two volumes in one.) Including an inquiry into the circumstances that render cold drink, or the cold bath, dangerous in health; observations on the nature of fever; and on the effects of Opium, Alcohol, and Inanition; the author's experience of this remedy subsequent to the second edition of vol. I: and important communications from others on the same subject; and on the effects of Nitrous Acid in Luas Venerea. By JAMES CURRIE, M. D. F. R. S. Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh. Extracts from the Monthly Review, respecting the above work "With the merits of the former editions of this work all medical men are sufficiently acquainted; the practice which it recommends is established on the firmest basis of experience; and the "Medical Reports" can no longer depend on our commendation for the rank which they must hold among the productions of British genius. The quantity of new materials furnished for the third edition was so considerable, as to render it necessary to form it into a separate volume, under the title of Additional Reports. "In advertising to the dreadful fever which has so frequently raged in the United States of America, he expresses a degree of surprise and regret, (sentiments in which every friend of humanity must cordially participate) that a remedy, which has proved so eminently successful in similar diseases, should have never yet had a complete trial in the yellow fever. "The additions now specified are those which appear in the third edition; the fourth, (from which the above edition is printed) we believe was not published until after the much lamented death of the author, and is still further enlarged by an account of a typhus fever which broke out among the French prisoners at Stapleton, of a fever which occurred at Canterbury in a regiment of horse stationed there, and of the epidemic, which raged with so much violence at Gibraltar, &c. "The author of these volumes is now no more. As a medical writer, he may claim the first rank among the moderns; and perhaps no instance can be found in any age, in which so much correct science is united to elegance and propriety of diction, as in Dr. Currie's Medical Reports." BY HIS EXCELLENCY, Robert Wright, Esquire, GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND, A PROCLAMATION. WHEREAS it has been represented to me, on oath, that a horrid murder has lately been committed in Cecil county, by a certain John McGuire, on a certain James Coyle, that said John McGuire is described to be about five feet seven inches high, light complexion, dark hair, boyish countenance and cast down look aged about twenty years, stout made, strong and active—had on when he escaped, an old short blue coat, linsley trousers, and swans-down vest. His wrists considerably marked with the irons, and perhaps his legs also, and has lately broke jail. And whereas, it is the duty of the executive, in the execution of the laws, to endeavor to bring all malefactors to justice, I have therefore thought proper to issue this my proclamation, and do, by and with the advice and consent of the council, offer 150 dollars reward, to any person or persons, who shall apprehend and bring to justice the said John McGuire. Given in Council, at the City of Annapolis; under the seal of the state of Maryland; this ninth day of March, in the year of our Lord 1868, and of the independence of the United States of America, the thirty-second. ROBERT WRIGHT, By his excellency's command, NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council Ordered, That the foregoing proclamation be published twice in each week, for the space of four weeks, in the Federal Gazette and American, at Baltimore; the Maryland Gaz at Annapolis; the National Intelligencer; the Republican Advocate, at Frederick; the Maryland Herald, at Hagerstown; and in the Star, at Easton. Eighty Dollars Reward. Ranaway from the subscriber, some time in November last, a tall straight well made dark Mulatto GIRL, named NELLY, alias Nelly Short, about eighteen or nineteen years of age. She has a large proportion of hair or wool on her head, which she sometimes wears over her forehead, but generally plaited or braided, high cheek bones, large mouth, a small scar on one of her arms, and large feet and ankles. She is an excellent seamstress and a valuable house servant. Her clothing I cannot describe, as she has a great variety chiefly calicoe, and India cotton. I have reason to believe she has obtained a certificate of freedom from some of those who have been manumitted, of course will change her name and endeavor to pass as free. Also a Negro WOMAN, named LETT, alias Letty (of the same complexion as the above described) about thirty-six years of age low and corpulent, has a small black mark across the upper part of her nose, a heavy sleepy countenance, extremely slothful and inactive, and turns her toes in, considerably when she walks. Her clothing cannot be described, as she also has a variety. She has made use of the same artifice to obtain a certificate as the former, and endeavor to pass as free. The above reward will be given to any person who will secure the said negroes in any jail, so that I get them again, or in proportion for either, and reasonable charges if delivered to the manager at my farm, adjacent to Port-Tobacco. DAN. JENIFER. N. B. LETT absconded sometime in February. Port Tobacco, March 10. 2aw6w
