Thirty Dollars Reward
For apprehending Negro Shadrack Coulston, who absconded from a farm in the neighborhood of Baltimore, about the 20th instant—He is about one or two and twenty years of age, dark complexion, large eyes, small stature and well made, nimble and artful, and cunning beyond all description, one of his arms very much mutilated by the discharge of a gun wears his wool tied and combed, and is of a foppish turn. He had on a homemade cloth lead colored roundabout jacket and trousers, the roundabout lined with coarse red flannel, an old pair of boots and a coarse ravens duck shirt, well made. He was raised on the estate of Dr. Stevenson, in the neighborhood of Baltimore, and was bought of a gentleman in Calvert-street. His father (Davy Coulston) and his mother, live near St. Mary's College; he has a grandmother in Harford county.
If taken in the city of Baltimore, or in the county, 15 dollars will be given; and out of the county, and in the state, 20 dollars; & out of the state the above reward, and reasonable charges for bringing him home.
N. B. All persons are forewarned from harboring the said Negro at their peril.
For directions to bring him home, apply to the printer.

Fifty Dollars Reward.
Ran away from the subscriber, at the Patapsco Upper Ferry, in Baltimore county, Maryland, on Tuesday, the 20th of April last, a Mulatto Man Slave named GEORGE, who calls himself GEORGE SEAMOUR: he was raised by col. Dorsey, near Elkridge Landing—he is about 27 years of age, 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, somewhat knock-kneed, middling stout made, full faced, good teeth, has a scar on the end of his nose, which was occasioned by the bite of a horse when a boy, and another behind one of his ears, which he got in fighting some time past, and a great deal of wool on his head, which he often wears drest and queued with a ribbon; he has a great acquaintance in the city of Baltimore; was bred to the farming business and taking care of horses—he will endeavour to pass as a free man, and perhaps has obtained a pass or discharge, as a great many of the same family of negroes have been manumitted by Mrs. Dorsey of the city of Baltimore. He had on and took with him suadry clothes, one broad cloth coat, striped plush jacket, brown thick set pantaloons, white Holland shirt, and half boots and shoes; he also had with him one dark striped nankeen short coat, white Mar soilles jacket, and nankeen pantaloons and a good castor hat, besides his working clothes, all of which he may have changed for others; he is very plausible, and has a great deal to say. I will give the above reward to have him secured in any jail on the continent, so that I get him again, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home, by
