gether with the very flattering prospect it holds out to every person disposed to contribute Ten Dollars for so laudable a purpose as that of bringing a Collegiate course of instruction more generally within the reach of the Community, it is hoped it cannot fail to receive a prompt and liberal support from the citizens of Baltimore in particular, and the public in general.
When it is also taken into view, that the Baltimore College hath received the first sanction of the State, and that it already contains a number of students equal to that of most Colleges in the United States; and yet has no accommodations but such as are at the private expense of the principal professors—it is hoped the community will see in this mode of providing proper buildings, no design but what is indispensably necessary, and conducive to general interest Prizes will be paid, sixty days after the completion of the drawing, such as are not demanded within twelve months thereafter will be considered as generous donations to the Pro Bono Americano.

P. WILLIAMSON's celebrated Elastic three-sided METALLIC PEN, Which has been pronounced by many of the most eminent penmen to be far superior to any metallic pen that has ever been made heretofore, either in Europe or America. It is well known that all the pens upon the former principle have been wanting in that pliability which is so necessary in order to write with smoothness and rapidity, which in this is happily effected by the two additional s-des. They may be had of Mr. George Aiken, No. 72, Market street, Baltimore; and of Mr.
John Vance & Co 178, Market street, opposite the Union Bank.
ST. MARY'S COLLEGE,
Baltimore, Jan. 1, 1808.

Mr P. Williamson,
Sir,
I cheerfully comply with your request, to state my opinion of your Patent Steel Pens. I have always considered them as eminently entitled to public attention and encouragement.
The objections which are usually urged against metal pens do not apply to yours, which are constructed with such peculiar flexibility and elasticity, that they may be applied to all the purposes of the common quill. I have employed one of them generally for upwards of a year, and do not find it impaired by use.
They are particularly calculated for merchants in journalizing and posting accounts, as they possess the advantage of giving a uniform appearance to their books. To gentlemen of the bar and others who are obliged to take notes suddenly, they are no less serviceable, as they may be made hard or soft according to the peculiarity or whim of the writer's hand; and by being kept clean they may be used for many years. The economy and other advantages of your invention, appear to be so evident, that I need not dilate further on the subject.
With the hope that your ingenuity may be as profitable to yourself as it is serviceable to the public,
I remain, sir,
Your obedient servant,
FRANCIS FORSTER.
