Fifty Dollars Reward. Ran away from the subscriber, at the Patapsco Upper Ferry, in Baltimore county, Maryland, on Tuesday, the 20th of April last, a Mutatio Man Slave named GEORGE, who calls himself GEORGE SEAMOUR: he was raised by col. Dorsey, near Elkridge Landing—he is about 27 years of age, 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, somewhat knock-kneed, middling stout made, full-faced, good teeth, has a scar on the end of his nose, which was occasioned by the bite of a horse when a boy, and another behind one of his ears, which he got in fighting some time past, and a great deal of wool on his head, which he often wears drest and queued with a ribbon; he has a great acquaintance in the city of Baltimore; was bred to the farming business and taking care of horses;—he will endeavour to pass as a free man, and perhaps has obtained a pass or discharge, as a great many of the same family of negroes have been manumitted by Mrs. Dorsey of the city of Baltimore. He had on and took with him suadry clothes, one broad cloth coat, striped plush jacket, brown thick-set pantaloons, white Holland shirt, and half boots and shoes; he also had with him one dark striped nankeen short coat, white Marsailles jacket, and nankeen pantaloons and a good castor hat, besides his working clothes, all of which he may have changed for others: he is very plausible, and has a great deal to say. I will give the above reward to have him secured in any jail on the continent, so that I get him again, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home, by SAMUEL NORWOOD.

Mr. Printer, The following letters I received in answer to my request of the writers, their opinion of my Patent N. London Billious Pills, as a public Medicine. 'Tis unnecessary to add that these gentlemen are distinguished characters. The offices they sustain are sufficient proof of their respectability, and I trust is the highest evidence I can give the public of the efficacy of my Pills. New-London, Sept. 9, 1807. SAMUEL H. P. LEE.

Copy of a letter from John R. Watrous, Esquire, M. D. President of the Connecticut Medical Convention to the Proprietor. Doctor Samuel H. P. Lee, Colchester, Sept. 26, 1807. Dear Sir—I have just received your letter of the 18th instant, requesting my opinion of your Billious Pills. From what knowledge I have of them, I know of no deleterious effects, which they have ever produced, but believe them to be a good composition for the use they are designed.

I certainly have no objections to their being in general use, and in the circle of my Practice, frequently recommend them; and believe the people in general give them the preference to any other Pill in circulation. I am sir, with much respect, Your most obedient, JOHN R. WATROUS.

Copy of a letter from Dr. William B. Hall, a practitioner of much eminence in the city of Middletown, Connecticut—Teacher and Lecturer on the Theory and Practice of Physic; Treasurer of the Connecticut Medical Society, and Fellow of the same; to the Patentee, dated Middletown, September 14th, 1807, in answer to a letter requesting his opinion of the "Patent New-London Billious Pills"—as a public Medicine. Doctor Samuel H. P. Lee, New-London. Middletown, Sept. 14th, 1807.

Sir, I duly received your favor of the 9th instant requesting my opinion of your Patent Pills, as a public medicine, and the experience I have had from using them in my practice—I have to inform you Sir, that I have administered your Pills, more or less in my practice the six or 7 years past, and have found them equal, and in many instances, superior to any preparation I have ever known, in all cases where stomach and bowels required evacuation by the intervention of a cathartic. I view them peculiarly beneficial in southern climates, where almost all complaints are more or less of a bilious tendency—and in any region where cathartics are adopted as a curative indication, they are in my opinion, the most convenient and efficacious pill of any in use, being safe and easy in their operation. To travellers by sea or land, I think they must be eminently useful, having printed directions for using them which must be a convenience in cases where medical aid cannot be obtained.—To the public generally, they have another benefit annexed to them, which is of some importance, especially to the poorer class; that is, they are a cheap medicine, and by being prepared by yourself only, they have the best reason to expect that they are well prepared, & with some experience may be able to administer them in their families, with considerable success, and thereby save expence.

Finally Sir, knowing as I do the component parts of the pill, I can with confidence recommend them as a useful and safe public medicine. I am Sir your most obedient servant. WILLIAM B. HALL, The above Pills are sold wholesale & retail in Baltimore by Warner & Hanna, J. Vance & Co.—In Geo. Town, Col. by Dr. Jno. Ott. May 3.
