THE DIRECTORS OF THE

Library Company of Baltimore

Remind the members of the company who have not yet paid their annual contribution for this year, that it became due on Monday, the 25th of last month. They have authorized Mr. James Dawson to apply to all indebted, and to receive the sums respectively due from them—and the librarian is also ready to receive from those who will make payment at the library. The constitution prescribes, that those who may not have paid within ten days after the contribution has become due, shall be fined one cent for every day's delinquency; and in consequence of the serious inconvenience which the directors have suffered from the tardiness of many of the members, in making payment, they have resolved, that they will exact the said fine from all those who may not have paid before the 3d of August next, and who were not on the list of delinquents on the 25th of April. To all others, a special notice applying to their cases, will be delivered by the above mentioned James Dawson.

By order of the Board,

Just Printed and Published

THIS DAY, (Price 37 1-2 cents, neatly bound) THE PAPIST MISREPRESENTED AND TRULY REPRESENTED

One of the best productions of the Rev. John Gother, so well known in England, by many excellent works on religious subjects. This now offered to the public has been in so constant esteem, especially among the Roman Catholics in England, that it has gone thro' at least nineteen editions. The editor entertains no doubt but that it will be received with equal satisfaction and equal advantage in America, where it cannot be denied that there yet remain many prejudices in the minds of those who never had any opportunity of knowing or caring of examining the true and genuine doctrine of the Catholic Church. This doctrine is presented in this small work, with equal exactness and ingenuity, without any superfluous ornament; it is left, as it were, to speak for itself, which is no small proof both of the sincerity of the author, and of the goodness of the cause he had undertaken.

It is sold at the book-store of Matthew Carey, No. 192 Market street, of Patrick Byrnes, No. 130 ditto, of Samuel Butler, corner of Market and Charles-streets, and at the printing office of John W. Butler, corner of Gay and Water-streets.

Levigated Charcoal Dentifrice

This preparation of Charcoal is warranted by the proprietor to be entirely exempt from any acids, which are the basis of the generality of Tooth Powders in common use, and which, though they possess the property of whitening the teeth in a short time, must by frequent use chemically destroy the enamel, and thereby produce the effects which the powders are employed to prevent.

The Levigated Charcoal Composition Dentifrice possesses the desirable qualities of rendering the teeth beautifully white, destroying the factor arising from carious teeth, which so disagreeably contaminates the breath, and of stopping the progress of the scurvy in the gums; at the same time it is incapable of either chemically or mechanically injuring the teeth

Sold (by appointment of the proprietor) only in Baltimore by EDME DUCATEL, Apothecary, Chemist and Druggist, No. 26, Market-street.

Where may also be had, DURABLE INK,

For writing on linen with a pen, which nothing will discharge without destroying the linen. The utility of this preparation, whenever such an article is wanted, need not be pointed out. Initials, names, cyphers, crests, &c. may be formed with the utmost expedition, and without the incumbrance or expense of any instruments; and will be found to stand every test of washings, buckings, acids, alkalis, &c. which oily and other compositions will not. If written on linen as it comes from the loom, it firmly stands the bleaching. It is also a much better as well as indelible criterion of a person's property, than initials made with thread, silk, or instruments frequently used for this purpose.

Metallic Pen.

Copy of a note and extract of a letter from the President.

"WASHINGTON, 26th Jan. 1808. "Th: Jefferson presents his compliments to P. Williamson, and his thanks for the very fine steel pen he has been so kind as to send him. It is certainly superior to any metallic pen he has ever seen, and will save a great deal of trouble and time employed in mending the quill pen."

"WASHINGTON, 22d March, 1808. "The 4 Callender pens arrived safely. I find them answer perfectly, and now indeed use no other kind."

Pro Bono Americano.

P. WILLIAMSON'S celebrated Elastic three-slit METALLIC PEN.

Which has been entirely exempt from any acids, which are the basis of the generality of metallic pens that has ever been made heretofore, either in Europe or America. It is well known that all the pens upon the former principle have been wanting in that pliability which is so necessary in order to write with smoothness and rapidity, which in this is happily effected by the two additional slits. They may be had of Mr. George Aiken, No. 72, Market-street, Baltimore; and of Mr. John Vance & Co. 178, Market-street, opposite the Union Bank.

ST. MARY'S COLLEGE, Baltimore, Jan. 1, 1808

Mr. P. Williamson, Sir,

I cheerfully comply with your request, to state my opinion on your Patent Steel Pens. I have always considered them as eminently entitled to public attention and encouragement. The objections which are usually urged against metal pens do not apply to yours, which are constructed with such peculiar flexibility and elasticity, that they may be applied to all the purposes of the common quill. I have employed one of them generally for upwards of a year, and do not find it impaired by use. They are particularly calculated for merchants in journalizing and posting accounts, as they possess the advantage of giving a uniform appearance to their books. To gentlemen of the bar and others who are obliged to take notes suddenly, they are no less serviceable, as they may be made hard or soft according to the peculiarity or whim of the writer's hand; and by being kept clean, they may be used for many years. The economy and other advantages of your invention, appear to be so evident, that I need not dilate further on the subject.

With the hope that your ingenuity may be as profitable to yourself as it is serviceable to the public.

I remain, sir, Your obedient servant, FRANCIS FORSTER.
