To the Public.

In consequence of the continuance of the court in session, and other circumstances, the sale of my property did not take place on Saturday last: But if not sold at private sale before Tuesday the seventh day of June, will be offered at public sale on the premises—the sale to begin at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Plats in the meantime may be seen at the following houses: Walker's, near the head of the Marsh market—Henck's, in Gay St.—Mrs. Griffith's, at Griffith's Bridge—Browning's, by the Hanover market house, and Pamphill's and Prendeville's, at Fell's Point. Mr. Johnston, who lives in the Brick house on the premises, has also a plat, and will show the lots on the ground.

The terms of payment will be six, twelve and eighteen months with interest.
