POETRY.

From "The Infant."

FOURTH OF JULY.

BY THE REV. DR. J. MINES.

Ye sons of freedom join,
With heart and soul, to sing
An anthem all divine,
And loud hosannahs bring
To God the blest,
Who gave us rest,
Whose mighty hand
Redeemed our land.

Hear, Lord, a nation's song,
That rolls with heart and voice
Through all her coasts along,
To thee she sends her joys;
Ye spheres of light
Behold the sight,
And aid the praise
With heaven-born lays.

Defend our heritage,
Thou God of earth and sky,
Henceforth from age to age
Till time itself shall die:
And may this grace
Still meet its praise,
From countless tongues
In thankful songs.

The grace, redeeming man,
Is light of life divine;
And next in wisdom's plan
The beams of freedom shine:
Angelic throngs,
Assist our songs,
And swell the sound
The earth around.

PUZZLES.

A stone, in falling, broke into four pieces. By these pieces any number of pounds could be weighed — from one pound to forty. Quere—What was the weight of each piece?

Three tipling fellows, who had each a score at a grogshop, which they were not willing to pay, agreed to go and in a pretended scuffle, to rub out all the chalks. This they accordingly did. But the landlord recollects that Pat's and Ned's together was $1.37½, that Ned's and Bill's was $1.12½, and that Pat's and Bill's was $1.25. He will thank any of his friends to tell what was their separate scores.

In the course of business, my money drawer was empty at 12 o'clock. At one, I received a sum of money in dollars; at two, I laid ont the fifteenth part of it, and lent a seventh of the remainder; at three, I was paid a sum equal to one-third of that which I received at one o'clock, and I paid at the same time $25; at four, I received a sum exactly one-fourth of what I then had, and I found that I had exactly as much as was paid to me at one o'clock. Question: How much was paid to me at first?

Fifty forms my first,
But nothing is my second,
Five just makes my third,
My fourth's a novel reckon'd.
Now, to fill my whole,
Put all my parts together;
I die if I get cold,
Yet never mind cold weather.

What word can you make of the following words, to wit: I insult age, sir.

Answers are requested to the above puzzles.

"Hallo, boy, ain't you got a daddy living?"

"No, but my brothers have."

"What's their names?"

"Why, they're both named Bill, except Sam, and his name's Bob. My name's Booza, but they calls me Boozy for short. Any thing more to ax?"

A HARD NAME.—A man named Stone exclaimed in a bar room, "I'll bet I have the hardest name in the company."—"Done," said one of the company; "what's your name?" "Stone," cried the first." "Hand me the money," said the other, "my name is Harder."

A BACHELOR'S GOVERNMENT.—More than half the members of the Mississippi Legislature are unmarried. Prentice says the ladies refuse to trust with new bonds those who have repudiated their old ones.

"My dear," said a wife to her husband, "did you ever read of the plague in London?" "No, I don't want to read it. It is enough to have a plague in my own house."

An apothecary lately sent in a bill to a widow lady, which ran thus: "To curing your husband till he died."

"Blessed are they that mourn," for they get paid for it—in some of the eastern countries.

"I am indeed very much afraid of lightning," murmured a pretty girl during a thunder storm. "And well you may be," said the despairing lover, "when your heart is made of steel."

If you want to make a sober man a drunkard, give him a wife who will scold him every time he comes home.

Some wicked old bachelor has said that let us marry who we will, we afterwards find that we have not wed our intended.

"I'm very much pressed for time," as the man said when his wife hugged and kissed him to coax a "gold watch" out of him.

NEW STORE.
CASH SYSTEM.

THE question is often asked why it is that goods cannot be sold in Rockville as low as they are sold in Georgetown and Washington? The question is easily answered: and I say that they can be sold as low here as they are in either of those places—that is, if they are paid for when purchased; but if they are sold on a credit, it will be impossible to do so—for a careful dealer can, with the cash, purchase his goods in Philadelphia or Baltimore from fifteen to twenty per cent. cheaper than any person (however good their standing may be) can buy them on credit: and as the subscriber is determined to sell his goods as low as they can be had in the District of Columbia, or elsewhere, he will be compelled to sell them exclusively for cash, or country produce, at a fair market price.

When money is so scarce as it now is, such a store will benefit the community very much, and the subscriber a little too—he having rented the large Brick Store House, opposite the Post Office, is now opening a good assortment of GROCRIES, LIQUORS, CHINA, GLASS, AND QUEENS-WARE, with a considerable quantity of DRY GOODS: the stock consisting in part, as follows—

1st, 2d and 3d qualities brown Sugar;
1st, 2d and 3d do loaf do
Java, St. Domingo and Rio Coffee;
Imperial, Young Hyson, Gunpowder and Black Teas;
Sperm, mould and dipped Candles;
Coshen and Glades Butter;
English and common Cheese;
First quality Potomac Shad, Susquehanna Herrings;
Smoked, Scotch and large Herrings;
A few barrels of Newfoundland Herrings, sup. quality and size.
Sugarhouse and West India Molasses;
One tierce excellent Syrup;
Old Irish and Scotch Whiskey;
American do. all qualities;
Champagne and cognac Bsandy;
Jamaica and Antigua Spirit;
Holland and American Gin;
Madeira, Teneriffe, pale and brown Sherry, Sicily, Lisbon, Port and Malaga Wines;
One cask of Fintilla and Danotta Wine, a very scarce and desirable article;
A general and well assorted stock of China, Glass and Queensware;

With a great variety of other goods entirely too numerous to be inserted in a newspaper, which he pledges himself to sell on such terms as ought to give general satisfaction to all who may please to give him a call.

FARM
AT PRIVATE SALE.

I WILL sell, at Private Sale, a valuable FARM in Montgomery county, Maryland. It lies on the Little Monocacy, about 1½ miles from Barnesville, on the road leading to Greenfield Mills, and about 3 miles from the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, and contains

120 ACRES OF LAND;

25 in Wood and 20 in Meadow. The soil is of good quality and the farm well watered—with a comfortable DWELLING HOUSE, STABLE, &c. and a never-failing Spring of Water convenient to the dwelling.

There is a good MILL SEAT on the farm with the dam built and race dug, and from the great quantity of timber in its vicinity—being at the foot of the Sugar Loaf mountain—would be an excellent site for a saw-mill; also, for a distillery, factory, grist-mill, &c.

The terms, which will be liberal, will be made known on application to the subscriber, residing in Poolsville.

WRIGHT'S
INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS.

IF, during the continuance of storms and floods, the channels of

OUR MIGHTY RIVERS

become so obstructed as to afford an insufficient outlet for the superabundant waters, we can expect nothing less than that the surrounding country will be

OVERWHELMED WITH THE FLOOD.

In like manner with the human body—if the Skin, Kidneys, and Bowels, (the natural outlets for useless and corrupt humors,) become so obstructed as to fail in affording a full discharge of those impurities, which are in all cases

THE CAUSE OF SICKNESS,

we surely can expect no other results than that the whole frame will sooner or later be

OVERWHEMED WITH DISEASE.

As in the first place, if we would prevent an inundation, we must remove all obstructions to the free discharge of the superabundant waters. So, in the second place, if we would prevent and cure disease, we must open, and keep open, the Natural Drains of the body.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, Of the North American College of Health, will be found one of the best, if not the very BEST MEDICINE IN THE WORLD, for carrying out this beautiful and simple theory; because they completely cleanse the Stomach and Bowels from all billious humors and other impurity, and at the same time promote a healthy discharge from the Lungs, Skin, and Kidneys; consequently, as all the natural drains are opened, Disease of every name is literally driven from the body.

☞ CAUTION.—As the great popularity and consequently great demand for Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills has raised up a host of counterfeiters, country agents and storekeepers will be on their guard against the many imposters who are travelling about the country selling to the unsuspecting a spurious article for the genuine.

It should be remembered that all authorized agents are provided with a certificate of agency, signed by WILLIAM WRIGHT, Vice-President of the N. A. College of Health. Consequently, those who offer Indian Vegetable Pills, and cannot show a certificate, as above described, will be known as imposters.

The following highly respectable storekeepers have been appointed agents for the sale of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, and of whom it is confidently believed the genuine medicine can with certainty be obtained:

Montgomery County, Md.

VEIRS & HIGGINS, Rockville;
J. D. BEARDSLEY, Mechanicsville;
JOSEPH GILPIN, Sandy Springs;
