A LETTER FROM GEN. TAYLOR.

FROM THE CINCINNATI "SIGNAL."

The circumstances under which the following letter was received by the editor are regarded as a warrant for its publication. We felt it our duty, when the first demonstrations were made in favor of Gen. TAYLOR for the Presidency, to dwell upon the subject at considerable length. We were desirous that some of the suggestions contained in our article should meet the eye of Gen. Taylor, and therefore enclosed it to his address, with a few words of reference to our position as a journalist. In reply to that communication we have received the admirable and significant letter which we take pleasure in laying before our readers:

Head Quarters Army of Occupation,
Camp near Monterey, May 18, 1847.

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, with the enclosure of your editorial, extracted from the "Signal" of the 13th April.

At this time my public duties command so fully my attention that it is impossible to answer your letter in the terms demanded by its courtesy, and the importance of the sentiments to which it alludes; neither, indeed, have I the time, should I feel myself at liberty, to enter into the few and most general subjects of public policy suggested by the article in question. My own personal views were better withheld till the end of the war, when my usefulness as a military chief, serving in the field against the common enemy, shall no longer be compromised by their expression or discussion in any manner.

From many sources I have been addressed on the subject of the Presidency, and I do violence neither to myself nor to my position as an officer of the army, by acknowledging to you, as I have done to all who have alluded to the use of my name in this exalted connexion, that my services are ever at the will and call of the country, and that I am not prepared to say that I shall refuse if the country calls me to the presidential office, but that I can and shall yield to no call that does not come from the spontaneous action and free will of the nation at large, and void of the slightest agency of my own.

For the high honor and responsibilities of such an office, I take this occasion to say that I have not the slightest aspiration. A much more tranquil and satisfactory life, after the termination of my present duties, awaits me, I trust, in the society of my family and particular friends, and in the occupations most congenial to my wishes. In no case can I permit myself to be the candidate of any party, or yield myself to party schemes.

With these remarks, I trust you will pardon me for thus briefly replying to you, which I do with a high opinion and approval of the sentiments and views embraced in your editorial.

With many wishes for your prosperity in life, and great usefulness in the sphere in which your talents and exertions are embarked, I beg to acknowledge myself, most truly and respectfully, your obedient servant,

Z. TAYLOR, Maj. Gen. U. S. A.
JAS. W. TAYLOR, Cincinnati, O.

CROPS IN VIRGINIA.—The Martinsburg Gazette says:—"We are pleased to be able to state, from personal observation of the wheat fields in the counties of Augusta and Rockingham, during a recent visit to our friends in that region, that the prospects of an average yield have been greatly changed within a few weeks."

THE ELECTIONS.—Elections in the following States take place on the 2d of August: Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Alabama and Missouri.

VIRGINIA ELECTION.—Morgan county, Va. has returned A. Michael, whig, to the Legislature, by 13 majority. His majority in April was one, and he resigned in consequence of his election being disputed. This result makes a tie on joint ballot.

Died,

On the 26th ult. at his residence in this county, in peace and in hope of a glorious immortality in heaven, JOHN JONES, of E. He was a man respected by all who knew him—a good citizen—and in his death, the community has lost a kind friend, and an afflicted family an affectionate husband and father, with whom and for whom all our sympathies are awakened. In this, however, we console ourselves. He is gone to dwell with the Lamb for sinners slain—a place where there is no need of the sun and moon, but where the out-beaming glory of God is the life and light thereof.

Happy soul thy days are ended,
All thy mourning days below;
Go, by angels' guard attended,
To the sight of Jesus, go. J. H. C.

☞ The faculty unite in recommending the celebrated External Remedy, HUNT'S LINIMENT:

SING SING, Dec. 26, 1845.

My Dear Sir: I received your note of yesterday, asking my opinion in relation to Hunt's Liniment, as prepared by George E. Stanton. Knowing its composition, and having frequently used it, I can recommend it to you as a safe External Remedy, and, in my opinion, the best Liniment now in use.

Very truly and respectfully yours,
A. K. HOFFMAN.

Col. P. Van Cortland, Croton Manor.

I fully concur in the above opinion.
W. N. BELCHER.

The above medicine is for sale in Rockville by VEIRS & HIGGINS, and by agents published in another part of this paper.

☞ DYSPEPSIA.—This distressing complaint is a weakness of the digestive organs, and, like every other disease, is caused by impurity of the blood. The gastric juice, a fluid peculiar to the stomach, when secreted from bad blood, is deficient in those wonderful solvent properties which are of such vital importance to digestion. Consequently, the food, instead of being speedily dissolved, often becomes absolutely spoiled or putrified in the stomach; hence bad breath, sour belching, costiveness, pains in the stomach, colic, dysentery, cholera morbus, and other dreadful complaints.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a certain cure for Dyspepsia, because they cleanse the stomach and bowels from all bilious humors, and purifying the blood. Four or five of said pills, taken at night on going to bed, will in all cases give some relief, and if continued for a short time, will not only make a perfect cure of dyspepsia, but will assuredly drive pain or distress of every description from the body.

BEWARE of Counterfeits of all kinds! Some are coated with sugar; others are made to resemble in outward appearance the original medicine. The safest course is, to purchase from the regular agents only, one or more of whom may be found in every village and town in the State.

The Daily National Whig

IS published in the city of Washington, every day, at three o'clock, P. M., Sundays excepted, and served to subscribers in the city, at the Navy Yard, in Georgetown, in Alexandria, and in Baltimore, the same evening, at six and a quarter cents a week, payable to the sole agent of the Whig, G. L. Gilchrest, Esq., or his order. It is also mailed to any part of the United States for $4 per annum, or $2 for six months, payable in advance. Advertisements of ten lines or less inserted one time for 50 cents, two times for 75 cents, three times for $1, one week for $1.75, two weeks for $2.75, one month for $4, two months for $7, three months for $10, six months for $16, one year for $30, payable always in advance.

The National Whig is what its name indicates. It speaks the sentiments of the Whig party of the Union on every question of public policy. It advocates the election to the presidency of ZACHARY TAYLOR, subject to the decision of a Whig National Convention. It makes war to the knife upon all the measures and acts of the Administration deemed to be adverse to the interests of the country, and exposes without fear or favor the corruptions of the party in power. Its columns are open to every man in the country, for the discussion of political or any other questions.

In addition to politics, a large space in the National Whig will be devoted to publications upon Agriculture, Mechanics and other useful arts, Science in general, Law, Medicine, Statistics, &c. Choice specimens of American and Foreign Literature will also be given, including Reviews, &c. A weekly list of the Patents issued by the Patent office will likewise be published—the whole forming a complete family newspaper.

The Weekly National Whig, one of the largest newspapers in the United States, is made up from the columns of the Daily National Whig, and is published every Saturday, for the low price of $2 per annum, payable in advance. A double sheet of eight pages will be given whenever the press of matter shall justify it.

The memoirs of Gen. Taylor, written expressly for the National Whig, are in course of publication. They commenced with the second number, a large number of copies of which have been printed, to supply calls for back numbers. CHS. W. FENTON, je 26-6m Proprietor of the Nat. Whig.

NEW DRY GOODS STORE,
IN WASHINGTON CITY.

Conducted on the cash system exclusively.

PERRY & BROTHER,

(Successors to Perry and Ashby,)

No. 7, opposite the Centre Market,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

DEALERS IN BRITISH, FRENCH, RUSSIA & AMERICAN FANCY AND STAPLE DRY GOODS, of every description.

The advertisers (natives of Montgomery Co.) have, during the past five years, sold vast quantities of goods in their line, to their friends and citizens generally residing in Montgomery Co. and now desire to extend their trade more generally throughout the county, as well as elsewhere.

They have now in store an entire new stock of all kinds of DRY GOODS, second in point of variety and styles to none in the District, and to which they are making daily additions throughout the year.

They make it an invariable rule to keep no goods but such as they know to be of good quality, and feel fully justified in asserting (their facilities considered) that they can give their Montgomery friends as many goods (AT LEAST) for their money, as can be obtained in the District.

Farmers can rely on finding at our store room at any and all times a full and complete stock of goods adapted to the wants of themselves, families and servants. We devote much attention to the selection of our stock for servants' wear, as we do an extensive trade in goods of that class.

NOTE.—Our stock of goods for ladies' and gentlemen's wear is at all times large, and comprises the latest styles and fabrics of the day. We have an agent at the north, of acknowledged taste, who forwards us any thing rich and rare that may make its appearance in the markets. In fact, it has been conceded long since, by many, (with what truth the public will judge for themselves,) that our predecessors kept the most tasty and stylish goods in the District, which reputation we will strive to keep on the increase.

We warrant all articles sold to prove as represented, or the money refunded on all occasions—prefering to do business in that way, as it has a tendency to give us a lasting repetation for fair and honorable dealing, which is our aim.

A full and complete stock of MOURNING GOODS always on hand.

We take pleasure in extending, which we now do, a standing invitation to all citizens of Montgomery and the adjacent counties, to call and examine our stock when they please, whether they wish to purchase or not.

NOTE.—Selling as we do, entirely for cash, enables us to offer really great bargains, as we are not compelled to charge large profits to make up losses, naturally attendant on a credit business. Those who will reflect, cannot fail to be convinced that it will be to their advantage to deal with us, or some other house operating on the cash system.
