FROM THE (CHARLESTON) SOUTHERN PATRIOT.

BATTLE OF PLATTSBURGH.

(Tune—Battle of the Kegs.)

Sir George Prevost with all his host
March'd from Montreal, sir,
Both he and they as blith and gay
As going to a ball, sir,
The troops he chose were all of those,
That conquer'd Marshall Soult, sir,
Who at Garonne (the fact is known,)
Scarce brought them to a halt, sir.

With troops like these, he thought with ease
To crush the Yanky faction:
His only thought was how he ought
To bring them into action,
Your very names, Sir George exclaims,
Without a gun or bay'net,
Will pierce like darts thro' Yankee hearts
And all their spirits stagnate.

Oh! How I dread, lest they have fled
And left their puny Fort, sir,
For sure Macomb won't stay at home,
To afford us any sport, sir,
Good bye, he said to those that stay'd,
Keep close as mice, or rats snug,
We just run out, upon a scout,
To burn the Town of Plattsburgh.

Then up Champlain with might and main
He march'd, in dread array, sir,
With fife and drum to scare Macomb,
And drive him quite away, sir,
And side by side their nations pride,
Along the current beat, sir;
Swore not to sup 'till they set up
M'Donough and his fleet, sir.

Still onward came these men of fame,
Resolved to give "no quarter"
But to their cost found out at last,
That they had fought a Tartar.
At distant shot a while they fought
By water and by land, sir,
His Knightship ran from man to man,
And gave his dread command, sir.

If Britons strike home, this dog Macomb,
So well the fellow knows us—
Will just as soon jump o'er the moon
As venture to oppose us.
With quick dispatch, light every match,
Man every gun and swivel,
Cross in a crack, the Saranac;
And drive 'em to the devil!"

The Vermont ranks that lin'd the banks,
Then pois'd the unerring rifle,
And to oppose their haughty foes,
They found a perfect trifle.
Meanwhile the fort kept up such sport,
They thought the devil was in it;
Their mighty train played off in vain—
'Twas silenced in a minute.

Sir George amaz'd, so wildly gaz'd
Such frantic gambols acted,
Of all his men not one in ten
But thought him quite distracted.
He cursed and swore, his hair he tore,
Then jump'd upon his poney,
And gallop'd off towards the bluff,
To look for Captain Downie.

But when he spy'd M'Donough ride,
In all the pomp and glory,
He hasten'd back to Saranac,
To tell the dismal story.
"My gallant crews, oh shocking news!
Are all or killed or taken?"
"Except a few that just withdrew
In time to save their bacon."

Old England's pride must now subside,
Oh! how the news will shock her,
To have her fleet not only beat,
But sent to Davy's locker.
From this sad day let no one say,
Britania rules the ocean,
We've dearly bought the humbling thought,
That this is all a notion.

With one to ten, I'd fight 'gainst MEN,
But these are Satan's legion;
With malice fraught, come piping hot
From Pluto's darkest regions!
Heine, mon Dieu! what shall I do,
I smell the burning sulpher,
Set Britain's isle all rank and file—
Such men would soon engulph her.

That's full as bad; oh! I'll run mad
Those western hounds are summon'd;
Gains, Scott and Brown, are coming down,
To serve me just like Drummond.
Thick too as bees the Vermontese,
Are swarming on the lake, sir,
And Izards men come back again,
Lie hid in every brake, sir!

Good Brisbane, beat a quick retreat,
Before their forces join, sir;
For sure as fate, they've laid a bait,
To catch us like Burgoyne, sir
All round about, keep good look out
We'll surely be surrounded,
Since I could crawl my gallant soul
Was never so astounded."

The rout began, Sir George led on,
His men ran helter skelter
Each tried his best to outrun the rest
To gain a place of shelter;
To hide their fear, they gave a cheer,
And thought it mighty cunning—
He'll fight they say, another day,
Who saves himself by running!

CORRECT REPRESENTATIONS.

BATTLE OF LAKE ERIE.

MURRAY, DRAPER, FAIRMAN AND J. WEBSTER,

Respectfully inform their numerous subscribers, and the public in general, the correct ENGRAVINGS representing the engagement on LAKE ERIE, publishing by them, will not be ready for delivery before the spring, owing to the superior stile in which they will be executed, and the necessary delay incurred by submitting the original drawings to the inspection of Commodore PERRY, who has politely favoured the publishers with the subjoined letter on the subject;

Copy of a letter from Commodore Perry to the publishers.

NEWPORT, May 23, 1814

Gentlemen,

I have examined two views of the action on Lake Erie, drawn by Mr Sully and Mr Kearney, from information given them by the commanding officers of the American vessels on Erie. I have no hesitation in pronouncing them a correct representation of the engagements at those particular moments

Wishing that your pecuniary success may equal your exertions in obtaining correct information of that battle—

I am, gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
O. H. PERRY

Messrs. Murray, Draper,
Fairman & Webster.

The publishers have also the signatures of the following officers, who have examined the drawings and approve of them as being correct—Lieutenants Turner, Packett, Conklin, and Webster.

ENGLISH EDUCATION.

THE Professors of Easton Academy deem it incumbent on them to inform the gentlemen of Easton and its vicinity, that in the English department of the Academy two classes have been opened, which are to be confined solely to the elements of Reading, Writing, Grammar, Arithmetic and Geography with the use of the Globes and Maps, all simplified to the capacities of children

As emulation and application increase in proportion to the number in a class, therefore the same Lecture given on any of these branches, not being as instructive to four, as it would be to sixteen pupils, induced them to publish this: and they are, through their exertions and care, persuaded, that a boy of moderate abilities must, by being one year in such a class, lay the foundation of a solid English education

NOTICE.

THE undersigned, two of the Commissioners appointed by the act of Congress passed on the thirty first of March, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, entitled "an act providing for the indemnification of certain claimants of public lands in the Mississippi territory," hereby, according to the injunctions of the said act, give notice to all whom it may concern:

That the Commissioners appointed by the said act will meet on the first Monday in January next, at the City of Washington, as by the said act is directed, for the purpose then or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, of adjudging and determining upon the sufficiency of all such releases, assignments and powers as may be executed and deposited in the office of the Secretary of State, in conformity with the directions of the said act; and also then and there, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, for the purpose of adjudging and finally determining upon all controversies arising from rejected claims which may be found to conflict with and be adverse to each other; and also of adjudging and determining upon all such claims under a certain act, or pretended act, of the State of Georgia, entitled "an act supplementary to an act, entitled "an act for appropriating a part of the unlocated territory of this State (Georgia) for the payment of the late state troops and other purposes therein mentioned, declaring the right of this State to the unappropriated territory thereof, for the protection and support of the frontiers of this State, and for other purposes." passed January the seventh, one thousand seven hundred and ninety five, as may be found to have accrued to the U States by operation of law; and, generally, for the purpose of doing and performing all matters and things enjoined upon the said Commissioners by the act of the thirty first of March, one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, aforesaid

James Monroe,
Acting Sec'ry of State
Richard Rush,
Attorney General.

Washington, Oct. 3, 1814.

ADDITIONAL NOTICE.

THE undersigned Commissioners appointed by the act of Congress of the 31st of March, 1814, relative to the Yazoo Claims, are of opinion, that it rests with the claimants to prepare, by themselves or their counsel, the releases, assignments, and powers, mentioned in the first section of the act Desirous, nevertheless, to give every facility to the execution of the act consistent with what is taken to be its right construction, they recommend,

That claimants living at a distance, who may find it necessary to prefer their claims through an agent or attorney, should invest such agent or attorney with authority to add or alter the instruments aforesaid; or vary in any wise their form and manner, so that they may conform to such directions and decisions as the Commissioners may give when organised as a board, and proceeding to execute their functions under the act By this course such changes, substitutions or amendments, as are susceptible of being made up on the spot, can take place without further inconvenience to the claimants.

James Monroe,
Acting Sec'ry of State
A. J. Dallas,
Sec'ry of the Treasury
Richard Rush,
Attorney General.

FOUNTAIN INN TAVERN,

FOR RENT THE ENSUING YEAR.

This large and commodious establishment situated on Washington-street—formerly occupied by Mr. Solomon Lowe, now by Mr. Thomas Henrix. It is well known, being the eldest in the place, and probably the best situated on the Eastern Shore. Every necessary convenience is attached, as also an extensive garden.

James Willson, Jun.

Easton, Nov 22.—— 3

MAIL STAGE,

From Easton to Chester-Town,

STARTS from the subscriber's Tavern every Monday and Thursday morning, after an early breakfast, and arrives at Chester Town before sundown same evenings, where the line continues the next morning through Wilmington to Philadelphia. Returning, leaves Chester-Town every Tuesday and Friday morning, and arrives at the EASTON HOTEL, (late Fountain Inn) same evenings; where the best accommodations are prepared for Travellers, and conveyances furnished for those wishing to proceed to either of the lower counties.

The subscriber has a new Stage, good strong horses, and a careful driver, added to the certainty of progressing on the route without delay, renders the present establishment worthy the attention of the Public, from whom he solicits a share of patronage.

His Hotel is large, and will at all times enable him to furnish private rooms to Travellers—his liquors of the best quality—his table spread with the varieties of the season; and his servants and fare for horses surpassed by none on the shore—added to his own personal attention, he flatters himself in being able to give entire satisfaction to those who may give him a call.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RANAWAY from Mr. Thomas Cray, living in Easton, (to whom she was hired for this year) a dark mulatto woman, called FLORA, about 5 feet, 3 or 4 inches high, of a slender and delicate form, and a sickly countenance—is a very good washer and ironer, and plain cook—has a very bad temper, and apt to be impudent when spoken to with authority.

This woman was the property of Major Joseph Richardson, of Caroline county, lately deceased, and upon a distribution of his estate was allotted to the subscriber, who intermarried with one of the deceased's daughters She has been hired in Easton, to different persons for several years past, and has a husband by the name of Jim Ridout, who went away with her, and who belongs to David Kerr, Jun and is also now advertised.—Flora is about 35 or 37 years of age, and Jim about 40—They went off together, on the night of the 27th of May last, with a cart and horse, loaded with various articles She had such a variety of clothing, that it would be useless to attempt a description of them

The above reward will be given, if taken out of the State of Maryland, and all reasonable charges paid if brought home—30 dollars and like charges paid, if taken and secured within this State All persons are warned not to harbor the said slave Flora, at their peril.

Antnony Ross.
