APOLLO's FOUNT.

FROM THE REPUBLICAN CHRONICLE.

The Blanket.

A PARODY.

HOW dear to this heart are the pleasures, which ever
Attend on the cold gloomy seasons of snow;
Balls, parties and sleighing, prevail spite of weather,
While the bowl, and good cheer, warmth and spirits bestow.
Then within's the bright fire, always sure to draw nigh it
The merry and gay who from freezing have fled;
But the comfort most dear, was to slumber in quiet,
Beneath the warm Blanket which cover'd the bed.
The soft woollen Blanket, the warmth-giving Blanket,
The comforting Blanket that cover'd the bed.

That soft woollen covering I hail'd as a treasure,
For often at night, nearly void of all sense,
I found it the source of a life-giving pleasure,
The purest that nature can ever dispense.
How quickly beneath its warm surface I enter'd,
And soon every feezing sensation was fled;
While thus so delightfully, glowingly centre'd,
I bless'd the warm Blanket that covered the bed.
The soft woollen Blanket—the warmth-giving Blanket,
The comforting Blanket that cover'd the bed.

How sweet 'twas to lie, and mild summer believe it,
So genial the warmth which this covering throws;
No soft downy couch could e'er tempt me to leave it,
Though spread for a King's royal limbs to repose;
But though every trace of that lov'd situation,
While summer beguil'd, from our memory had fled,
Already w' experience a strong inclination
To sigh for the Blanket that cover'd the bed.
The soft woollen Blanket—the warmth-giving Blanket,
The comforting Blanket that cover'd the bed.

AN ACCOUNT

Of the inhuman method of executing criminals in the Island of Java, by the Gum of the Upas Tree, the most deadly poison in the world.

EXTRACTED FROM THE MEMORANDUMS OF A WELL KNOWN TRAVELLER.

In the year 1776, in the month of February, I was present at the execution of thirteen of the emperor's concubines, at Soura Charta, who were convicted of infidelity to the emperor's bed—It was in the forenoon about eleven o'clock, when the fair criminals were led into an open space within the walls of the emperor's palace. There the judge passed sentence upon them, by which they were doomed to suffer death by a lancet poisoned with Upas. After this the Alcoran was presented to them, and they were, according to the law of their great prophet Mahomet, to acknowledge and to affirm by oath, that the charges brought against them, together with the sentence and the punishment, were fair and equitable. This they did, by laying their right hand upon the Alcoran, their left hand upon their breast, and their eyes lifted towards Heaven; the judge then held the Alcoran to their lips, and they kissed it.

These ceremonies over, the executioner proceeded on his business in the following manner: thirteen posts, each about five feet high, had been previously erected; to these the delinquents were fastened, and their breasts stripped naked—In this situation they remained a short time in continual prayer, attended by several priests, until a signal was given by the judge to the executioner; on which the latter produced an instrument, much like the spring lancet used by farriers for bleeding horses. With this instrument, it being poisoned with the gum of the Upas, the unhappy wretches were lanced in the middle of their breasts, and the operation was performed upon them all in less than two minutes.

My astonishment was raised to the highest degree, when I beheld the sudden effects of that poison; for in about five minutes after they were lanced, they were taken with a tremor, attended with a subsultus tendinum, after which they died in the greatest agonies, crying out to God and Mahomet for mercy. In sixteen minutes by my watch, which I held in my hand, all the criminals were no more. Some hours after their death I observed their bodies full of little spots much like those of the petechiæ, their faces swelled, their colour changed to a kind of blue, and their eyes looked yellow.

To the humane.

Was kidnapped or stolen, on Wednesday morning last, my child, a free negro boy called JESSE STANLEY, about 11 years old, but small of his age—the back part of his head is bald, and has a scar on the right side of his neck, occasioned by a burn when an infant. I have no knowledge where they have conveyed him to, but hope that all good persons will take notice, and if they should see him, I hope that they will stop him, so that I may get him again, and they will oblige a distressed mother.

Tan Yard to rent or sell.

THE subscriber offers to rent or sell his Tan Yard in the village of Denton. This yard has about 20 laying vats, and one large letch vat, with limes, bates, pools, &c. A good cast Bark mill, mill house, beam house, currying shop, bark house, and bate shed, & a comfortable dwelling convenient to the yard. There is also in the yard a stock of good bark, mostly Spanish oak, which can go with the yard on reasonable terms. For the purchase of bark and hides, and for the sale of leather, there is no situation on the Eastern Shore preferable; and to an enterprizing young man it would be a valuable stand. The yard has been carried on by the subscriber for many years & is in the best repute of any yard in the county. Any person wishing to buy or rent the above described property, can see it by calling on the subscriber. Letters addressed to the subscriber will be attended to. Possession can be given immediately.

To rent,

For a term of years,

WARRINGTON, the farm on which the subscriber now resides, situated in Queen-Ann's county, two miles from Queens Town, from whence there is an easy steam-boat and packet communication with Baltimore. The situation is very healthy, the water excellent, and the improvements such as to afford every comfort to a family. About 120 bushels of wheat will be seeded for the tenant, (part of which is Lawler wheat). The seeding began on Saturday the 3d instant, and will be completed by the 15th or 18th. The tenant if he chooses may purchase stock and utensils of every description, with corn, corn-blades, hay and straw, &c. now on the farm. Apply on the premises, and in my absence the applicant may leave proposals in writing, which will be immediately attended to.

200 Dollars Reward.

A negro man named PHILL, calls himself PHILL POTTER, the property of James Price, of Easton in Talbot county, state of Maryland, eloped on Saturday night the 26th of September, 1818—Phill is about twenty one years old, black complexion (not very black) pretty straight and well made—He is an active, likely fellow, but has a down look when spoken to, and is very apt to take hold of his fingers and crack the joints of them when conversing with any one, particularly if he is not acquainted with the person he is talking to, and appears much confused.—His teeth are very regular, and scarcely touch each other, and they are rather broad.—He has a wife at Doctor Thomas' in the town of Easton aforesaid, but has lately got dissatisfied with her, and taken up with a free negro woman who lives in Kingscreek Hundred in the county aforesaid, named Nelly Henry.

I am strongly inclined to believe that Phill has been enticed away by a free negro man who calls himself Adam Jackson, (and who lately returned from sea) formerly the property of Col. William Potter of Caroline county, or of Doctor Nathaniel Potter now of the City of Baltimore.—Phill is about five feet ten inches high—I recollect no particular mark or scar on Phill, but I rather think, from what I have lately heard, that he has a small scar or bare place on his head, perhaps it is on the side of his head, which may be discovered by strictly examining and parting of his hair or wool—He was at his father's, I am told, on Sunday the 27th of September, who is a free negro man called Nero Potter, living at this time on my farm, within about three or four miles of Easton.—Nero Potter aforesaid, the father of Phill, has resided on my farm for upwards of twelve or fourteen years, but for good reasons I was induced some two or three months age, to order him to look for another place, it is therefore very likely he has assisted in persuading his son Phill to run off, or he may have him concealed at some place in this neighbourhood. I have been informed that negro Phill aforesaid was seen in Tuckahoe neck, Caroline county, on Sunday evening the 27th of September, but I think it is likely he will make for the City of Philadelphia, Baltimore, or the State of Delaware, or perhaps some where in the Jerseys.—Phill run off in company with a very likely young negro man, about twenty years of age, the property of Miss Betsey Cox, or of her neice Miss Lydia Cox, of Easton aforesaid, and they are probably together at this time.—I will give the reward aforesaid of Two Hundred Dollars to any person who will apprehend the said negro man Phill out of the state of Maryland, or One Hundred Dollars if taken up any where within this state, and deliver him free from injury, to me at this place—Phill took with him two coats, one blue and the other black, a pair of blue pantaloons, a furred hat, and other clothing not recollected; but I have just heard that the black furred hat has been exchanged for a white one.

Easton, 1st Oct. 1818. (oc 6)

200 Dollars Reward.

Ranaway from the subscriber, living in Easton, Maryland, on Saturday night, the 26th of September, a young dark mulatto negro, named "DAVEY." He is about 5 feet 6 inches high, and about 20 years of age. He has a short face, down look, remarkably low forehead—His wool grows down nearly to his eyebrows—He is round shouldered and stoops when he walks.—He has with him probably the following clothes, viz. a long blue cloth coat, dark brown cloth pantalets nearly black, a white kersey over jacket, a dark brown surtout, a black wool hat, a pair of good shoes—His voice is rather low. He went of in company with a young negro man named "Phill," the slave of James Price, Esq.

Whoever will take up and bring safely home to me, in Easton, the above negro, shall be paid the above reward of two hundred dollars.

ELIZABETH COX,
Guardian to Lydia Cox.

Easton, oct 6

P. S It is supposed the above Negroes are on their way to Philadelphia and New Jersey.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

Ranaway from the subscriber, about the first of the present month, a boy named BOB, from fourteen to sixteen years of age, well made, dark complexion, an open and intelligent countenance, and remarkable for a large scar on the back of the right hand, commencing as nearly as recollected about an inch below the wrist, nearly over the middle finger, and extending to the second joint of the forefinger, which is disabled and rendered crooked thereby. Said boy I purchased of Capt John Seth, of this county, sometime in August, and it is supposed he was induced away and harboured by some negro, his connections being numerous between this place and Wye Mill, a number of whom are free, and some one of them may probably convey him even out of the state. A reward of fifty dollars will be given for apprehending and securing said boy in the Easton jail, and if taken out of this county or state, all reasonable expenses paid.

I am now about returning to the Mississippi—any person apprehending said negro, will give information to Mr Solomon Lowe, of this place, who will pay the above reward.
