AN ACT

To establish a judicial district in Virginia, west of the Alleghany mountain.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That so much of the state of Virginia as is situated west of the summit of the mountains which seperate the waters emptying into the Chesapeake Bay and Roanoke river from the waters which fall into the Ohio River, shall be one judicial district, and there shall be a district court therein, to consist of one judge, who shall reside in the said district, and be called a district judge, & annually hold six sessions, as follows: At Clarksburg, on the fourth Mondays of March and September; at Louisburg, on the second Mondays of April and October, and at Wythe court house, on the first Mondays of May and November.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said court shall, besides the ordinary jurisdiction of a district court, have jurisdiction of all causes except of appeals and writs of error, cognizable by law in a circuit court, and shall proceed therein in the same manner as a circuit court; and writs of error shall be from decisions therein to the supreme court, in the same manner as from circuit courts.

Sec. 3 And be it further enacted, That there shall be a clerk appointed for the said court; and that a district attorney and marshal be appointed for the said district, in like manner as in other judicial districts.

Sec. 4 And be it further enacted, That there shall be allowed to the said judge of the said district court the yearly compensation of one thousand six hundred dollars, to commence from the date of his appointment; that there shall be allowed to the said district attorney, the yearly compensation of two hundred dollars, to commence from the date of his appointment; and there shall be allowed to the said marshal, the yearly sum of two hundred dollars, to commence from the date of his appointment, to be paid quarterly at the Treasury of the United States.

RESOLUTION

Directing a survey of certain parts of the coast of North Carolina.

RESOLVED by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be, and he hereby is, requested to cause surveys to be made of the points of Cape Hatteras, Cape Lookout, and Cape Fear, and of the shoals of those Capes, respectively; and to cause such an examination to be made of those Capes, and Shoals respectively, as will ascertain the practicability of erecting light houses, beacons, or buoys on or near the extreme points of them, or either of them; and also to cause the latitude and longitude of the said capes, extreme points, and shoals respectively, to be ascertained with as much exactness as may be practicable; and that the results of such surveys and examinations be reported to Congress.

H. CLAY, Speaker of the House of Representatives.
DANIEL D. TOMPKINS, Vice-President of the United States, and President of the Senate.
25 January 19, 1819.
Approved, JAMES MONROE.

AN ACT

For the relief of William B. Lewis.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the proper accounting officers of the Treasury be, and they are hereby, authorized to audit and settle the account of William B. Lewis, assistant deputy quartermaster general to the Tennessee militia and volunteers, under the command of major general Jackson, in such manner, and upon such terms as may appear reasonable and just.

H. CLAY, Speaker of the House of Representatives
JOHN GAILLARD, President of the Senate pro tempore.
26 January 8, 1819.
Approved, JAMES MONROE.

AN ACT

For the relief of the legal representatives of Alexander Montgomery, deceased.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That it shall be the duty of the register of the land office, and receiver of public monies, west of Pearl River, in the state of Mississippi, to examine the evidence heretofore given, and to receive additional testimony, in the claims of land, to the legal representatives of Alexander Montgomery, deceased, founded on warrants or orders of survey, granted by the Spanish government to Solomon Whitley and John Montgomery, and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of said register and receiver, that the said Solomon Whitley and John Montgomery, or their legal representatives, under whom the said tracts of land are claimed, were residents in the Mississippi Territory, on the 27th day of October, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, then, and in that case, the claims aforesaid, shall be respectively confirmed, and patents shall issue for the same as in other cases: Provided, That nothing in this act shall affect the claim or claims of any person or persons to the same land, or any part thereof, derived from the United States, if any such there be; or the claim or claims of any other person or persons, whatsoever.

H CLAY, Speaker of the House of Representatives
JOHN GAILLARD, President of the Senate, pro tempore.
27 January 8, 1819.
Approved, JAMES MONROE.

AN ACT

Granting to Mehitabel Cole the lands therein mentioned.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be authorized to issue in the name of Mehitabel Cole, a land warrant for the bounty lands to which Jack Fairfield, late a soldier in the army of the United States, deceased, would have been entitled had he lived.

H. CLAY, Speaker of the House of Representatives.
JOHN GAILLARD, President of the Senate pro tempore.
28 December 28, 1818.
Approved, JAMES MONROE.

JAMES MONROE,

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

To all and singular to whom these presents shall come, greeting:

WHEREAS a Treaty between the United States of America and the Delaware nation of Indians, was concluded, at St. Mary's, in the State of Ohio, on the third day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, by Commissioners on the part of the said United States, and certain Chiefs and Warriors, of the said nation, on the part and in behalf of the said nation; which Treaty is in the words following, to wit:

Articles of a Treaty made and concluded at St. Mary's, in the State of Ohio, between Jonathan Jennings, Lewis Cass, and Benjamin Parke, Commissioners of the United States and the Delaware Nation of Indians.

Art. 1. The Delaware nation of Indians cede to the United States all their claim to land in the state of Indiana.

Art 2. In consideration of the aforesaid cession, the United States agree to provide for the Delawares a country to reside in, upon the west side of the Mississippi, and to guarantee to them the peaceable possession of the same.

Art. 3. The United States also agree to pay the Delawares the full value of their improvements in the country hereby ceded: which valuation shall be made by persons to be appointed for that purpose by the President of the United States; and to furnish the Delawares with one hundred and twenty horses, not to exceed in value forty dollars each; a sufficient number of perogues, to aid in transporting them to the west side of the Mississippi; and a quantity of provisions, proportioned to their numbers, and the extent of their journey.

Art. 4. The Delawares shall be allowed the use and occupation of their improvements, for the term of three years, from the date of this treaty, if they so long require it.

Art. 5. The United States agree to pay the Delawares a perpetual annuity of four thousand dollars, which, together with all annuities, which the United States, by any former treaty, engaged to pay them, shall be paid in silver, at any place, to which the Delawares may remove.

Art 6 The United States agree to provide and support a blacksmith for the Delawares, after their removal to the west side of the Mississippi

Art. 7. One half section of land shall be granted to each of the following persons, namely, Isaac Wobby, Samuel Cassman, Elizabeth Petchaka, and Jacob Dick, and one quarter of a section of land shall be granted to each of the following persons, namely, Solomon Tindell, and Benoni Tindell, all of whom are Delawares; which tracts of land shall be located, after the country is surveyed, at the first creek above the old fort, on White river, and running up the river; and shall be held by the persons herein named, respectively, and their heirs, but shall never be conveyed or transferred, without the approbation of the President of the United States

Art. 8. A sum not exceeding thirteen thousand three hunded and twelve dollars and twenty five cents, shall be paid by the U. States, to satisfy certain claims against the Delaware nation, and shall be expended by the Indian agent, at Piqua, and fort Wayne, agreeably to a schedule, this day examined and approved by the commissioners of the United States.

Art 9 This treaty, after the same shall be ratified by the President and Senate of the United States, shall be binding on the contracting parties.

In testimony whereof, the said Jonathan Jennings, Lewis Cass, and Benjamin Parke, commissioners as aforesaid, and the chiefs, and warriors of the Delaware nation of Indians, have hereunto set their hands, at St. Mary's in the state of Ohio, this third day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

Caroline County Court,

ON THE EQUITY SIDE THEREOF,
March Term, 1819.

JOHN GRAHAM, for the use of Jacob Charles and Gove Saulsbury, for the use of Thomas Saulsbury, Robert Stevens, and George A. Smith, petitioners, AG'T.

Petition in Caroline County Court, on the equity side thereof. March Term, 1819

The petition in this case states, that Noah Dawson, late of Caroline county, deceased, in his lifetime, and at his death, was indebted to the said John Graham, in the sum of one hundred and five dollars and seventy six cents, current money, with some interest thereon, who, since the death of the said Noah Dawson, hath assigned that debt to the said Jacob Charles; also, that the said Noah Dawson, in his lifetime and at his death, was indebted to the said Gove Saulsbury in the sum of six dollars and ninety two cents and one half cent, current money, with some interest thereon, who, since the death of the said Noah Dawson, hath assigned that debt to the said Thomas Saulsbury, Robert Stevens and George A Smith; that the said Noah Dawson died intestate, not leaving personal estate sufficient for the payment of his debts, and was at the time of his death seized in his demesne as of fee of some lands and real estate, lying and being in Caroline county, which at his death descended to his children, namely, the said Anna Ritta Graham, the wife of the said John Graham, the said Elizabeth Anderson, the wife of the said Thomas Anderson, the said Edward Dawson, the said Mary Dawson, one Sarah Dawson, who died an infant and intestate, after the death of the said Noah Dawson, the said John Jefferson Dawson, and the said Richard Zacheus Dawson—that the said John Graham and Anna Ritta his wife, after the death of the said Noah Dawson, and before the death of his daughter Sarah Dawson, sold and conveyed all their right and interest in the said lands and real estate of the said Noah Dawson, which descended to the said Anna Ritta Graham at his death, to one John Dawson, his heirs and assigns, who afterwards departed this life, intestate, seized in fee of the land and real estate thus sold and conveyed to him, which, at his death, descended to the aforesaid children of the said Noah Dawson, then alive, and to Mary Derickson aforesaid the wife of the said James Derickson, who resides in the State of Delaware, the said Sarah Bell the wife of the said Cyrus Bell, the said Seven Dawson, and the children of the said George Dawson, namely the said Enoch Dawson William Dawson Metford Dawson Sarah Dawson, Mary Dawson, and Asbury Dawson, which said last named children reside in the State of Kentucky, or in the State of Ohio. The object of the petition therefore is to obtain a decree for the sale of the said lands, whereof the said Noah Dawson died seized as aforesaid, for the payment of the debts due from him, at the time of his death—It is thereupon, this sixth day of March, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and nineteen, ordered and adjudged by Caroline County Court, that the said petitioners give notice of the said petition, and of the object thereof, by advertisement inserted three successive weeks in one of the newspapers published at Easton, in Talbot county, before the twentieth day of May next, warning the said defendants, who reside out of the State of Maryland, to appear in Caroline County Court, in person, or by a solicitor, on or before the thirteenth day of October next, to shew cause, if any they have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

By order,
JO: RICHARDSON, Clk.

Caroline County Court,

March Term, 1819.

The petition of William Noble, of the State of Ohio, was preferred in this Court, stating that Levin Noble, the father of the petitioner, was, in his lifetime, seized in fee of certain lands and real estate, lying in the county aforesaid,—and being so seized, had departed this life intestate, leaving a widow and sundry children (the most part of whom are minors) namely, Nancy Noble, (now the wife of William Williams) Tamsy Noble (who intermarried with a certain Thomas Hurt, and hath since died leaving issue) Charity Noble, Levin Noble, Caleb Noble, Nathan Noble, Summels Noble, and your petitioner William Noble, upon all of whom the said lands and real estate descended as the heirs at law of the said Levin Noble, deceased; which said petition prayed for a commission on the said lands, under the act of assembly entitled "An act to direct descents," and the several supplements thereto—which prayer appearing reasonable, a commission was accordingly issued to five discreet sensible men, as commissioners, who have made their return, stating, for reasons therein contained, that the said lands will not admit of a division without loss and injury to all the parties interested, and that they valued the same at the sum of one thousand five hundred and twenty nine dollars, current money, subject to the widow's dower—which said return has been ratified and confirmed by the Court; and an application was made on behalf of the petitioner, for an order for the sale of the said lands:—It was thereupon ordered by the Court, at the above mentioned term, "That the absent party "or parties interested in this case be notified to "appear in this Court by the second day of the "next October term, and to make his, her, or "their election, to take the same lands at the "valuation of the said commissioners, otherwise "an order for the sale of the same will pass as "prayed according to law: Provided a copy of "this order, together with a notice of the "return and ratification of the said commission, "be inserted in one of the newspapers published "at Easton, at least three months before the "next term."
