APOLLO'S FOUNT.

FROM THE CONNECTICUT SENTINEL.

The Schoolmaster's Soliloquy.

To whip—or not to whip?—that is the question.
Whether 'tis easier in the mind, to suffer the deaf'ning clamour of some fifty urchins;
Or take birch and ferule 'gainst the rebels,
By opposing end it?—to whip—to flog
Each day—and by a whip to say we end
The whispering—shuffling—and ceaseless
Buzzing,
Which a school is heir to—'tis a consummation
Devoutly to be wished—To whip—to flog;
To whip—and not reform—aye, there's the rub!
For by severity what ills may come,
When we've dismissed and to our lodging gone,
Must give us pain. There's the respect
That makes the patience of a teacher's life.
For who would bear the thousand plagues of a School,
The girls giggle—the tyro's awkwardness—
The pigmy pedant's vanity—the mischief—
The sneer—the laugh—the pouting insolence,
With all the hum drum clatter of a school
When he himself might his quietus make,
With a bare Hickory. Who would willingly bear.
To groan and sweat under a noisy live,
But that the dread of something after school,
(That hour of rumor, from whose slanderous
tongue,
Few Tutors ere are free,) puzzles the will,
And makes us rather bear these lesser ills,
Than fly to those of greater magnitude,
Thus error does make cowards of us all,
And that the native hue of resolution
Is sicklied over with undue clemency;
And pedagogues of great pith and spirit,
With this regard their firmness turn away,
And lose the name of government. A. X.

For Sale.

YOU that have long been in the habit of paying large bills to physicians, attend, a remedy is offered, come and look, purchase and settle on the farm now offered to you—The Farm known by the name of 'Maxwell Moore,' formerly the property of J. W. Banning, deceased, is handsomely situated on a branch of Tred Haven Creek, adjoining the lands of Jacob Loockerman, Esq. and the Dwelling of Dr. John Rodgers; this farm can vie with any one of the size for Timber from Easton to the Bay Side, containing between two and three hundred Acres, only a small portion being cleared, yet the rents until within two years past, has paid more than the interest on the sum demanded.

Also the FARM known by the name of 'Fishing Point' or the 'Mills' containing upwards of fifty Acres; this place has been considered amongst one of the handsomest situations in Talbot county, for health, produce none more so, and commanding such an extensive view of Tred Haven Creek, where the Steam Boat Maryland constantly passes within a few hundred yards in her route from Easton to Baltimore, and one of the best country stands for a Grocery Store of any in the county. A Wind Mill of the largest class, in good repair, with a large share of custom. The rent of this place will pay 8 percent interest on the sum that would be demanded, the Dwellings on both of those places are such as is common for tenants. Baltimoreans attend, a beautiful retreat in a sickly season, perhaps such places for health, situation and bargains will not be offered shortly in this county for sale again.

Valuable Land for sale.

The subscriber offers for sale the Farm called beautifully situated within two miles of Centreville, immediately on the Post Road, and adjoining two Grist Mills;—it contains about four hundred and ninety-four acres of land, with a plenty of timber and fire-wood. This farm offers many advantages rarely to be met with, viz.—there runs quite through the farm a large meadow, which with little labour might be made to produce a large quantity of Timothy and Herd Grass; and through which there runs an inexhaustable stream of water. The soil is well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat, clover and tobacco; it is elevated, yet level, and requires but very little ditching. The improvements are a two-story Brick Dwelling House, near which there is a brick well of excellent water, Kitchen, Quarter, Corn-house, a tolerable good Stable, and the frame of a large Barn, out of which might be made a very commodious farm house. Also a very fine apple and peach orchard, with well selected fruit.

"WARD'S GIFT,"

It is unnecessary to say any thing further, as I presume those that are disposed to purchase will view the premises, which will be shewn by Mr. H. Hardcastle, jun. living on the farm. For terms, which will be made very accommodating, apply to the subscriber, near Easton.
