Chance Medley,

The celebrated and 'high bred horse' which obtained 'the first premium at the Cattle Show in Easton, in the autumn of 1822;' will stand the ensuing season at Easton the first Tuesday in April, and the succeeding Tuesday at Denton, in Caroline county, and thus regularly through the season, at the above places every other Tuesday—at the Trappe on every Saturday, and the rest of the time at my farm near the Old Chapel—He is a handsome grey, fifteen and a half hands high and nine years old this spring—The pedigree and established character of CHANCE MEDLEY entitle him to the particular attention of gentlemen who wish to improve their stock: However, if required, it shall be given in Hand-bills hereafter—Mares from a distance can have pasturage, and if required, grain on moderate terms.
