NAVAL PEACE ESTABLISHMENT.

A bill was reported in Congress on Tuesday to re-organize and fix the Naval Peace Establishment of the United States. The first section of the bill provides as follows:

"That the Naval Establishment of the United States shall consist of one Vice Admiral, two Rear Admirals, twenty-eight Captains, twenty-five Master Commandant, one hundred and forty-nine Lieutenants, fifty-one Sub-Lieutenants, ten Chaplains, forty Surgeons, fifty-six Surgeons' Mates, forty Pursers, nineteen Sailing Masters, six Second Masters, four hundred Master's Mates and Midshipmen, twenty-six Boatswains; twenty-six Gunners, sixteen Carpenters, sixteen Sailmakers, together with such number of petty officers, seamen, ordinary seamen, and boys, as the public exigencies may require, to be determined and assigned to the different navy yards, stations, and vessels in the Navy, under the direction of the President of the United States: Provided, however, That the President may increase the number of officers in all the grades, except the two first before enumerated, not exceeding one-third of the number annexed to each grade."

An American gentleman, now travelling in Europe, writes from Paris, Jan. 18, to the Editor of the New-York Com. Advertiser, to this effect.

The cause of the Greeks which I learn with pleasure is so warmly espoused in our dear country, is little talked of here. There are those indeed, who feel the stigma which will ever attach to a country that can find an army to crush the liberties of Spain, and that still stand coolly aloof from Christian Greece, struggling with Mahomedan tyranny. But nothing is, nothing can be publicly done. Save that Franklin's life and maxims have been just published here by Didot, in modern Greek, to be sent to Greece, I hear of little on the subject that would interest you.

NORFOLK, MARCH 26.

The United States' ship Peacock, Capt. WM. CARTER, got under way from Hampton Roads, yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, and was below Old Point Comfort, standing down, with a light breeze, when the Steam Boat Hampton crossed the Roads, at 5 o'clock. She proceeds to join the frigate United States, in the Pacific.

AMERICAN GENIUS.—A correspondent of the National Intelligencer that "by information obtained at the Patent Office, it appears that nearly a thousand dollars have been received for patents granted within this month; and Mr. Gilbert Brewster, who spent six weeks lately examining the various models, declared that he was astonished at the ingenuity there exhibited. Mr. Brewster also declared, that the aid he received at that office, by examining attentively the machinery, has enabled him to perfect so much the art of spinning wool, that he has reduced the price of spinning it to one cent per pound. It has never been less than eight cents before, and during the war it was twenty-five cents per pound."

In an action recently brought in the District Court of Philadelphia for damages against the owner of a dog, by which the plaintiff was bitten in the right leg, so badly as to be confined to the house for five or six weeks, besides losing his situation as a watchman, the Jury, after being charged by the President of the Court, gave a verdict for the plaintiff of TWO HUNDRED AND SEVENTY FIVE dollars damages. The President said—"The law is clear, that if a man, who knows that a dog belonging to him is vicious, and addicted to biting persons, neglects to take proper and effectual precautions for restraining the dog from running at large, the owner is responsible for any injury which may arise to any person from the viciousness and ill-temper of the dog."

In one of our latest London papers, we observe the report of an action brought by a young woman, a dress-maker, to recover a compensation in damages for an injury sustained by the upsetting of the Brighton coach, against the owner, as responsible for the negligence of his servant, the driver. The young lady was rendered a cripple for life by the fall. The Jury retired for about two hours, and found their verdict for the plaintiff, FOUR HUNDRED POUND STERLING DAMAGES. Five hundred pounds were given in a similar case about a month before.

PARIS, Feb. 13.

A horrible murder has just been committed at Cormeil, near Paris. Twenty two robbers entered a farm house and murdered the master and servants, to the number of eleven persons. A little girl, only ten years of age, escaped the miscreants, by hiding herself in a dog kennel. She recognised the voice of one of the assassins, as the farrier attached to the farm. On the following day, the Magistrates proceeded to the spot. The farrier's wife stated that her husband had been absent for several days; but a Gendarme, as he was going a way, perceived one of the farrier's children, and inquired where his father was. The child replied, "My Papa is busy with some persons counting money in his cellar." The officers entered the cellar, and the twenty-two brigands were there taken into custody, and committted to the prison of Versailles.

PRESIDENTIAL VESTS.

It appears by an article in the Statesman, that Messrs J. & P. Hone & Co. sold on Monday, by auction, a large quantity of black silk vestings, lately imported, from France, stamped with pretty correct likenesses of several of the candidates for the presidency, with their names printed beneath their busts. The quality of the goods was very nearly the same; and the difference in price may therefore be taken as a political thermometer, indicating the degree of zeal felt by the partisans of the several competitors—Washington was struck off at $1 75 the yard; Clay at $1 62½; Jackson at $1 87½; and Adams at $3 25. The bids became in some measure local. Jackson went to Philadelphia and Baltimore; Adams to the east, and Clay to the west; but as New York had not yet fully made up her mind on the Presidential question, none but the Washington pattern remained in the city, although some of the others might doubtless have found a ready market. CHARLESTON, March 24.

SMALL POX—Yesterday a man on board a small sloop, in custody of the custom-house officers for smuggling coffee, having been found to have the small pox, the proper measures were taken by the Board of health for her removal, to prevent the spread of the disease. It is bad enough to defraud the government of the duty on coffee, but to smuggle small pox into the country ought to be most severely reprehended. City Gaz.

When the Tread Mill, was first introduced into the Alms House in Philadelphia, it gave such offence to the inmates of that establishment, that many sturdy ones among them left the place. It is said there are 150 paupers fewer in that institution this season than last, and that the decrease has been mainly owing to the introduction or the Tread-Mill.

Johnson who is to be executed on Friday talks with great coolness and indifference on the subject. There appears to be no room for public sympathy Nat. Adv.

The National Advocate whose editor is of the Jewish persuasion, has the following paragraph:

The Ladies of Philadelphia have formed a society for converting the Jews. "Lead us not into temptation."

FROM THE RICHMOND COMPILER.

A Western Editor gives notice to his "Runaway Subscribers," by which "class of patrons" he complains of having "sustained great losses" —that henceforth "all subscribers for the SPECTATOR, who have either absconded or changed their places of residence without apprising him of the same," will have their names duly "published, with the sum due from each," unless they make immediate arrangements for the payment of arrears. We suspect there is another class of PATRONS equally unprofitable with the "Runaway Subscribers"—viz, those stationary patrons, who without absconding or changing their place of residence, continually turn a deaf ear to the most importunate applications. "Knock, and it shall NOT be opened, Ask, and you shall NOT receive."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE STAR.

Sir—Please to give the following an insertion or two in your paper and you will thereby confer a favor on a number of your subscribers.

"At a meeting held in Chester Town on Saturday 27th ult. it was unanimously resolved that the friends of General Jackson be respectfully invited to attend a meeting to be held at Mr. Peacock's tavern, on Saturday April 10, at 3 o'clock, P. M. for the purpose of choosing a Committee, whose duty it shall be to meet a similar committee from the Upper and Lower districts; and from the several Election districts of Queen Ann's county; and select, in conjunction with them, a proper person as Elector of President"

P. S. It is hoped the friends of General Jackson will take steps as soon as possible to accomplish this desirable object. A place of meeting for the Committees of the two counties can easily be fixed on by opening a correspondence with the Jackson committee of Kent county.

BOOKS AT AUCTION PRICES.

THE subscriber, living at No. 60, Market st. eight doors west of North Gay st. Baltimore, has supplied himself with a very extensive collection of Books & Stationary, which he can sell at from 40 to 60 per cent. less than the usual store price. The assortment is very general, embracing all the Classical and eminent works of notoriety, particularly modern books of which he is always in receipt of the same as early as any book store in this city; which can be forwarded safe, per order, post and money paid. The advantages of this establishment are many, if money is any difficulty I would as soon receive good books in exchange, as the cash—as part of my business is exchanging either old or new books as may best meet the views of owners or purchasers of books and stationary. A Book Auction is held on Monday, Wednesday and Fridays in each week. New & second hand Books received for sale, and liberal advances made thereon. H. W. BOOLL, jr.

IN CHANCERY, MARCH TERM, 1824.

ELKTON BANK OF MARYLAND, RACHAEL WALMSLEY, ISAAC HINES & THOMAS GALE, vs.
JAMES H. GALE and LEVI H. GALE, and others.

The object of the bill filed in this cause is to obtain a decree for the sale of the Real Estate of William Gale, late of Kent county, deceased, for the payment of his debts.

The bill states, that the said William Gale being largely indebted to the complainants and others, duly made and published his last will and testament in the year eighteen hundred and seventeen, and shortly afterwards departed this life without altering or revoking his said will, the said James H. Gale and Levi H. Gale and the other defendants in this cause, his heirs at law and also his ligatees and devisees. The bill also states, that the said William Gale did not leave sufficient personal property to pay his debts, and that the defendants, James H. Gale and Levi H. Gale, reside without the state of Maryland: It is thereupon this 31st day of March, 1824, on motion of said complainants, adjudged and ordered, that they give notice to the said absent defendants, James H. Gale and Levi H. Gale, of the substance and object of this bill by causing a copy of this order to be inserted at least once in each of three successive weeks in the Easton Star before the first day of May next, that the said absent defendants may be warned to appear in this court, either in person or by solicitor, before the first day of September next, to shew cause, if any they have, why a decree should not pass as praved. EVERY PRIZE FLOATING THE NEXT DRAWING!!!

EIGHTEENTH REPORT of the drawing of the
GRAND STATE LOTTERY.

No. 13676, a prize of	$100
4085, a prize of	50
And 198 prizes of	12 each.

When it is recollected that out of the stupendous amount of $187,826 contained in this splendid scheme, only $2526 escaped at this drawing, it may be considered as an insignificant one indeed. The peculiar attractions of this magnificient lottery would seem to increase geometrically as the drawings progress.

Only two more drawings now remain to complete the distribution of the following brilliant prizes, all of which are now floating and of course liable to be drawn at any time, viz—

1 prize of	$100,000
1 prize of	20,000
2 prizes of	10 000
1 prize of	5,000
7 prizes of	1,000

Besides a multitude of 100s, 50s, and 12s, Amounting in the aggregate to the overwhelming sum of 18[illegible],300 DOLLARS!! Besides the unparallelled inducements which this magnificient lottery presents to adventurers, the fact that the payment of all its prizes is guaranteed by the state of Maryland, is a circumstance, which entitles it to superior consideration.

For tickets and shares, of which a few remain still unsold, warranted undrawn, apply or send forthwith to

CONINE'S, Fortune's Home,
