Valuable Land for Sale.

The subscriber offers for sale the Farm called beautifully situated within two miles of Centreville, immediately on the Post Road, and adjoining two Grist Mills;—it contains about four hundred and ninety-four acres of land, with a plenty of timber and fire-wood. This farm offers many advantages rarely to be met with, viz.—there runs quite through the farm a large meadow, which with little labour might be made to produce a large quantity of Timothy and Herd Grass; and through which there runs an inexhaustable stream of water. The soil is well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat, clover and tobacco; it is elevated, yet level, and requires but very little ditching. The improvements are a two-story Brick Dwelling House, near which there is a brick well of excellent water, Kitchen, Quarter, Corn-house, a tolerable good Stable, and the frame of a large Barn, out of which might be made a very commodious farm house. Also a very fine apple and peach orchard, with well selected fruit.

"WARD'S GIFT,"

It is unnecessary to say any thing further, as I presume those that are disposed to purchase will view the premises, which will be shewn by Mr. H. Hardcastle, jun. living on the farm. For terms, which will be made very accommodating, apply to the subscriber, near Easton.

IN CHANCERY, MARCH TERM, 1824.

ELKTON BANK OF MARYLAND, RACHAEL WALMSLEY, ISAAC HINES & THOMAS GALE, vs.
JAMES H. GALE and LEVI H. GALE, and others.

The object of the bill filed in this cause is to obtain a decree for the sale of the Real Estate of William Gale, late of Kent county, deceased, for the payment of his debts.

The bill states, that the said William Gale being largely indebted to the complainants and others, duly made and published his last will and testament in the year eighteen hundred and seventeen, and shortly afterwards departed this life without altering or revoking his said will, the said James H. Gale and Levi H. Gale and the other defendants in this cause, his heirs at law and also his ligatees and devisees. The bill also states, that the said William Gale did not leave sufficient personal property to pay his debts, and that the defendants, James H. Gale and Levi H. Gale, reside without the state of Maryland: It is thereupon this 31st day of March, 1824, on motion of said complainants, adjudged and ordered, that they give notice to the said absent defendants, James H. Gale and Levi H. Gale, of the substance and object of this bill by causing a copy of this order to be inserted at least once in each of three successive weeks in the Easton Star before the first day of May next, that the said absent defendants may be warned to appear in this court, either in person or by solicitor, before the first day of September next, to shew cause, if any they have, why a decree should not pass as praved. BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES,

FEBRUARY 14, 1824.

WHEREAS, it appears on the Pension List, furnished by the Treasurer, that there is a considerable sum of money laying in the Treasury appropriated to the payment of invalid Pensioners, which has not been demanded as far back as eight of ten years. AND WHEREAS, it is presumed that many of all the individuals interested in said appropriations, not demanded within the last two years, are dead, and it appearing desirable that some period should be prescribed for all future demands on the Treasury of a similar nature, and that the surplus now remaining in the Treasury should be disposed of for the advantage of the state—Therefore,

RESOLVED, That all monies heretofore appropriated for the payment of the Pensioners and not demanded within the last two years, shall revert to the state, subject to the disposition of the legislature, and that all appropriations hereafter to be made for a similar object, shall be demanded within eighteen months thereafter under the penalty of a forfeiture of said pension; provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to debar any pensioner, or his heirs from the payment of any pension heretofore granted, if said pensioner or his heirs shall demand the same legally authenticated within twelve months after the passage of this resolution; and provided also, that it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to have this preamble and resolution published in such newspapers as the Executive shall deem expedient for the information of those concerned, and the names of all persons affected by this resolution.
