APOLLO'S FOUNT.

FROM THE RICHMOND ENQUIRER.

THE BUGLE.

Call of the Virginia Mountaineers to York Town.

AIR—RURAL FELICITY.

Bold sons of the mountains, from childhood delighted
To range for diversion, the woodlands around.
To hunt out the bear, or the wild deer affrighted
At hearing your rifle's loud-echoing sound,
Suspend for the present your sports of the wild wood,
The dangers, the pleasures, the toils of the chace;
And leave for a while the sweet haunts of your childhood.
The FESTIVAL SCENE of the Lowland to grace.

Brave sons of Virginia in forest and valley,
Your rifles are ready to move at a word;
And the sound of the Bugle now calls you to rally,
With echoes more blithe than your mountains e'er heard:
It calls you to YORK TOWN, where glory attended
The fathers whose fame and whose prowess you share,
To welc me the Chieftain that bravely defended
The soil and the cause, to your bosoms so dear.

Our friends to the Eastward, with beautiful notions
Of arches triumphal and ornaments gay,
Have watched and attended and followed his motions,
Intent their affection and zeal to display;
But you, Mountaineers, who have no decoration
Save hunting-shirt fringes, and moccasin shoes,
May wake in the mind of "the guest of the nation,"
The sweetest and dearest of all his reviews.

The Dress that Virginians, of old, took delight in,
With pouches and powder-horns simply bedeck'd,
Fayette saw your fathers oft muster and fight in,
And holds it, for their sake, in love and respect
Their courage, their patience, in ever privation
"The Friend of Virginia," will never forget;
The sons of such men to the last generation,
Will meet with the favor and smiles of FAYETTE.

To York Town then come, the nineteeth of October,
The day that Virginia won victory's crown;
When Washington joined with Fayette to enrobe her
In vestments of triumph and wreaths of renown:
'Twas there that Cornwallis and Tarleton the savage,
Whose merciless havock had wantoned around,
Were forced to resign all the fruits of their ravage,
And all the fine plunder, their enterprize found.

Come then, Mountaineers, 'tis the summons of duty,
Of honour and gratitude, pleasure and pride;
Come, join the bright train of youth, fashion and beauty,
That moves in procession to Chesapeake's side:
The proud heights of York Town now covered with bushes,
Once more shall be crowned with the brilliant array,
Of war's nodding plumage, and beauty's sweet blushes,
To WELCOME FAYETTE. and to HONOR THE DAY.

Valuable Land for Sale.

The subscriber offers for sale the Farm called beautifully situated within two miles of Centreville, immediately on the Post Road, and adjoining two Grist Mills;—it contains about four hundred and ninety-four acres of land, with a plenty of umber and fire-wood. This farm offers many advantages rarely to be met with, viz.—there runs quite through the farm a large meadow, which with little labour might be made to produce a large quantity of Timothy and Herd Grass; and through which there runs an inexhaustable stream of water. The soil is well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat, clover and tobacco; it is elevated, yet level, and requires but very little ditching. The improvements are a two-story Brick Dwelling House, near which there is a brick well of excellent water, Kitchen, Quarter, Corn-house, a tolerable good Stable, and the frame of a large Barn, out of which might be made a very commodious farm house. Also a very fine apple and peach orchard, with well selected fruit.

"HARD'S GIFT,"

It is unnecessary to say any thing further, as I presume those that are disposed to purchase will view the premises, which will be shewn by Mr. H. Hardcastle, jun. living on the farm. For terms, which will be made very accommodating, apply to the subscriber, near Easton.
