APOLLO'S FOUNT.

FROM THE NEW YORK NATIONAL ADVOCATE.

LOVE'S TO-NIGHT AND TO-MORROW.

The moon-beam on the wave is sleeping,
And Venus' star is burning bright;
And Beauty, through her lattice peeping,
Has beckon'd Love to her to-night.

With gems of dew his ringlets shining,
His beauteous bow all careless hung,
With roses round his temples twining,
Thus soft in Laura's ear he sung.

My barque is beating o'er the billow—
Speed, speed with me across the sea;
This faithful breast shall be thy pillow,
The moon alone our lamp shall be."

The listning maiden, all complying,
To rural peace she bade adieu—
And o'er the sea with love she's flying;
What port, alas! has she in view?

A cloud appears—a storm presaging—
On Love she calls—but where is he?
The angry billows loud are raging—
Why comes not Love to calm the sea!

Ah, maiden, maiden! vain thy sorrow;
Frail, faithless Love has wing'd his flight;
Joy's barque is dash'd, and Love's to-morrow
Will rise in shame, and set in night!

THE subscriber offers for sale the FARM where he lately resided, handsomely situated in Talbot county, about three miles from Easton, and containing about and is as comfortably situated as any in the county, off the salt waters—there is a Brick Dwelling House, Kitchen & Smoke House, together with all the necessary out buildings, which consist of wood; the buildings are not in good repair at this time.—There is about one hundred and twenty acres of wood or timber land, and about twenty acres of good meadow grounds, together with a plenty of marl, and is well watered with never-failing streams, together with as good an assortment of fruit of different kinds as almost any in the county. It can be divided into two farms, one containing about 230 acres, the other about 190, each to have a plenty of timber. I will sell either parcel, or the whole. I deem it unnecessary to say any more about it, as I conclude that no person will purchase without viewing it; the property will be shewn by Mr. Benjamin Kemp, who resides on the premises, and terms made known by the subscriber, near St. Michaels.

(See Mode of Drawing, as published before,) Thereby rendering unto the adventurer, the satisfaction of a certainty of obtaining part of the money invested back again by the purchase of the same number of equally "Odd and Even" Tickets, which causes the loss to be very trifling when compared with other lotteries, and, with these chances, at the same time, may be drawn any of the splendid sums of $25,000; 10,000; 5,000; 1,000's, besides many small prizes.

A CARD.

To all those having or desirous of having an interest in the EIGHTH CLASS of the

Grand University Lottery

The sale of tickets in the above scheme not having been sufficient to warrant the drawing to take place on the 22d inst. as originally intended, without a risk of considerable loss to the Manager, the drawing of the same is hereby postponed for 30 or 60 days. Notice of the precise day on which the Lottery will positively be drawn, will however soon be given.

P. CANFIELD, Manager.

It may not, perhaps, be necessary to assign any further reasons for this short postponement than are contained in the above. The manager would, however, beg leave to add, that when this class was issued, few persons, if any, anticipated in the least the late panic in the money market which has almost paralyzed every kind of business, and has caused such a singular and unprecedented stagnation in trade. The distress of capitalists and monied institutions has not been confined to any single state in our confederacy, but it has been severely felt from one extremity of the country to another; and has even been general in several of the oldest and wealthiest foreign countries. And it will not be considered a matter of surprise, that the same causes which induced so recently the postponement of the drawing of an important lottery should have a similar effect on one of much greater magnitude. But, it is hoped that a happy change for these reverses has already commenced, and that all classes of our citizens in every part of the union will soon participate in the returning tide of prosperity. The scheme now offered is by far the most attractive and splendid of any ever presented to the public in the United States; and many, very many who adventure therein will certainly be rewarded with princely fortunes, or handsome additions to what they already possess.

Those who have not yet taken an interest in this Lottery, now have an additional opportunity offered them, and they are respectfully invited to come forward and take a ticket or share at either of the manager's offices, where all applications, personal or per letter, will at any time be promptly attended to by the public's obedient humble servt. P. CANFIELD,
