WAR DEPARTMENT.

We published a few weeks ago some extracts from the report of the Secretary of War, laid before Congress at the present session. What follows is taken from the documents accompanying the report. [Md. Rep.

The organization of the army, is stated, by Gen. Macomb, to be, including officers and men, 6,188.

The general return of the army, November 20, 1830, is stated to be as follows.

Major General, 1; Brigadier Generals 2; Adjutant General, 1; Inspector Generals, 2; Quarter-master General and Quarter-masters, 5; Commissary General and Commissaries, 3; Surgeon General and Surgeons, 34; Paymaster General and Paymasters, 15; Commissary General of Purchasers, 1; Assistant Engineer, 1; Storekeepers, 2; Colonels, 11; Lieutenant Colonels, 12; Majors, 19; Captains, 130; First and Second Lieutenants, 296; Brevet Second Lieutenants, 88; Commissioned Officers, 627; Non Commissioned Officers, Artificers and Privates, 5,324; Aggregate, 5,951.

THE NAVY.

The following promotions in the Navy and Marine Corps, in addition to those we have already published, have been made by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Ward, Charles M. Armstrong, Henry Hoff, Ebenezer Farrand, Jonathan Ingersoll, Henry H. Bell, Grey Skipwith, Philip S. Stockton, Murray Mason, William Smith, Charles H. Davis, H. E. V. Robinson.

Brevet Captain John Harris, of the Marine Corps, to be a Captain, from the 13th June, 1830.

It is also stated that Master Commandant John H. Clack and Lieutenant Edmund Byrne, have been reinstated to their former rank and station. [Nat. Jour.

Previous to the adjournment of Congress, the following resolution, offered by Mr. Mercer, was adopted by a vote of 118 to 32.

Resolved, That the President of the United States be requested to renew and prosecute from time to time, such negotiations, with the several Maratime powers of Europe and America, as he may deem expedient for the effectual abolition of the African Slave Trade and its ultimate denunciation, as piracy under the Law of Nations, by the consent of the civilized world.

The improvement bill as it has passed the Senate, appropriates $600,000 to the rail road from Philadelphia to Columbia; $116,179 to the canal from Columbia to Middletown; $125,000 to the western turnpike; $700,000, to the canal of slackwater navigation between Huntingdon and Hollidaysburg, and the rail road across the Alleghany mountain; $200,000 to the extension on the West Branch; $100,000 to the North Branch; $28,000 to the Lewisburg cross cut to be paid out of the West Branch appropriation; $100,000 to the Big Beaver; and $60,000 to the French Creek. [U. S. Gaz.

THE SENATE.

We find in the Mercantile Advertiser, the following notice of the changes in this body at the close of the late session:—The seats of 16 of the members were, we believe, vacated on 3d inst. ten of whom, viz: Messrs. Woodbury, of N. H. Willey, of Conn. Chase, of Vt. Sanford, of N. Y. Marks, of Pa. Iredell, of N. C. Smith, of S. C. Burnet, of Ohio, McKinley, of Ala. and Barton, of Mri.—retire to private life. Of these Messrs. Chase, Iredell and Burnet declined a re election. Five of the sixteen have been re-elected, viz: Messrs. Chambers of Md. Forsyth of Ga. Johnson of La. Hendricks of Ia. and Kane of Ill. In Kentucky no choice has yet been made.' Another vacancy has arisen by the death of Mr. Noble of Indiana.

Minister from England—We learn from good authority, that Sir James McIntosh will probably succeed Mr. Vaughan as Minister from Great Britain to this country. The mission of this distinguished man will be most gratifying on many accounts; and especially to the intelligent citizens of America, whose curiosity will be gratified by an intercourse with one whose writings have long commanded their respect and admiration and whose public career in various offices and in the House of Commons has been upright and eminently useful. [N. Y. Com. Adv.

TRADE OF SAG-HARBOR.

We were agreeably surprised, in a brief visit to Sag-Harbor, Long Island, during the last season, at the extent of its commerce in the whaling trade; and at the general indications of thrift and activity. We perceive by a statement in the last Republican Watchman, that fifteen whaling ships belong to, and sail from that port, averaging above 320 tons. During the past year, ten ships arrived at the harbor, bringing in 14,250 barrels of right whale, and 3,380 bbls. sperm oil, with 117,550 lbs. whalebone.—The increase of the trade is shown from the fact, that one ship was withdrawn and six others added during the past year.—Albany Argus.

MASSACHUSETTS CLAIMS.

The Governor of Massachusetts, in a Message to the House of Representatives on Thursday last, acknowledges the receipt of $419,748 26 from the Secretary of the Treasury, under the Act of Congress which provided for the settlement of the Massachusetts Claims. The terms of the Act by which Maine was separated from Massachusetts Proper, give one third of this money to that State. It will be observed that for some reason or other, the accounting officer has cut short (a few thousand dollars) the appropriation allowed by Congress,—which was $430,748 26. The original Claim was $843,601 34.

CENSUS OF VIRGINIA—COMPLETE.—The population of Virginia is ascertained to be by the recent census,—1,207,783. In 1820, 1,065,363; increase, 142,421. At a ratio of either 48, or 50,000, she will loose two members of Congress.

COMMODORE BAINBRIDGE.

Private letters from Philadelphia inform us that the detachment of Commodore Bainbridge from the Naval Station at that city has produced very great dissatisfaction, under an idea that it is an act of injustice and disrespect to that veteran and gallant officer, who wins esteem and regard wherever his duty calls him. The newspaper of that city take part in the general expression of regret. In an article in the United States Gazette on the subject, the removal or transfer of the Commodore is denounced as an 'abrupt, unjust, and outrageous measure.' Whether it be any thing of all this depends on the circumstances under which it has taken place, which are not reported. If they find their way to our knowledge, our readers shall hear of them, whatever they be.

If the Philadelphians regret the loss of one gallant officer; it must be some compensation to them to receive in his place so distinguished and valued a commander as Commodore Warrington, who has been appointed to that station. [Nat. Intel. March 17.

The Dunstable Gazette, which we received last evening, gives returns from 66 towns, (43 of which, it is stated, were received from the N. H. Patriot office) furnishing the following totals, viz:—For Governor, Ichabod Bartlett, 8251. Samuel Dinsmore, 8859 Last year, Upham had in the same towns 7811, and Harvey, 8764. Giving a net National Republican gain of 345.

Ten towns in the 7th Senatorial District gave Daniel Abbot, (National republican candidate,) 1538; Peter Woodbury, (Jackson,) 1091. The same number of towns for representatives to Congress gave the 1364 votes for the national republican ticket, and 1281 for the Jackson.

Twenty towns received since the above, in the Keene Sentinel, give Bartlett 2840, Dinsmore, 1823. Last year, Upham, 2730; Harvey, 1642—net loss 71.

For Representatives to Congress, the votes in the above towns, together with Dublin, stand 3003 for the National republican ticket, and 1661 for the Jackson.

Phinehas Henderson, (the national republican candidate,) is elected Senator for District No. 9.

The papers give the names of 41 representatives elected, 22 of whom are marked as national republicans.

The Election of Representatives to Congress was to have taken place in New Hampshire on Thursday last. It is hotly contested between the friends of the present Administration of the General Government with John Brodhead at the head of their ticket, and the National Republicans, headed by Ichabod Bartlett. [Nat. Intel. March 12.

We learn from the Boston Gazette of the 16th inst., that a message was received on Thursday last in the Massachusetts House of Representatives, from the Governor of the state, announcing the receipt of a warrant drawn by the Secretary of the United States Treasury, upon the United States Bank, at Boston, under certain decisions of the Secretary of War, for $419,748 26. His excellency stated that he had not been favored with the ground of disallowance of a portion of the claim, a copy of the decisions not having been furnished to him.

INDIANA.

OFFICIAL DIGNITY.—The close of the late session of the Legislature presented a scene of novel interest in the history of Ligislation. The nomination of the judges of the Supreme Court by Gov. Ray gave great dissatisfaction to the Senate, and after various reports, resolutions and messages, the difference was blown into a perfect hurricane by a message from the Governor impugning the motives of the members in some of their proceedings. Several of the Senators rose in their places and charged the Governor with using his official patronage for electioneering purposes, declaring that the State was disgraced by him, and praying that Providence would avert a similar calamity for the future. The Governor, hearing these denunciations as he was sitting in the lobby, rose and attempted to defend himself, but sat down in a few minutes, apparently overcome by the intensity of his motions.

On the last day of the session, a committee of the Senate waited upon him to ask if he had any further communications to make, to which he replied in the affirmative. On the return of the committee, it was unanimously resolved not to wait for his communications, and the Senate adjourned sine die. [N. Y. Jour. Com.

CHEROKEES vs. GEORGIA.

We have in our extracts from Washington papers, noticed the case of the Cherokee nation vs the state of Georgia, in which Mr. Sergeant, of this city, appeared for the plaintiffs. We do not know that Georgia has engaged counsel, but we have every reason to expect, that the case will be settled by the high tribunal, before which it is argued, with an entire deference to justice and the constitution. Our readers are already informed of the opinions held at Washington, relative to the powers of the Supreme Court; and they are also aware, that not only General Jackson himself, but even Mr. Secretary Eaton has undertaken to give an opinion, as to the constitutionality of certain laws enacted by Congress, thus extending the power of nullification from a state to an individual. Now, should the Supreme Court give judgment in favor of the Cherokees, resort must be had to the executive, to General Jackson, for means to enforce the decision. The question then, of union or disunion, is near settlement—and we may hope that whatever may be the determination of the rash politicians of Georgia, the evil that we dread will not date from the centre of the Union. All who watch the events as they rise out of the southern disputes, find cause for increased apprehension in the character of the Executive of the nation. The people are without confidence, they may approve an expressed opinion but they know that actions diametrically opposite thereto may result; and instead of counting on established principles, they trust to the chance of a favorable impression, or lucky intervention of circumstances, at the moment of action to avert an evil which accident of passion might ensure. [U. S. Gaz.

GOLD MINES.

The Washington news states that there is a mine in the fourth district of Habersham county superior to any heretofore discovered, and promises to be inexhaustible. This mine was formerly known as Collins' Mine, the one half of which at this time, is owned by Captain Michael Brown, of Savannah, Maj. Jas. P. Heath, of Baltimore, and Doctor Reed, of Kentucky; the other half is owned by a company of gentlemen in Philadelphia, one of whom is at present in this state. The editor has seen a sample of the gold extracted from this mine, and also some of the rock taken from it, which from appearance and weight, justifies the opinion declared by those who have experimentally examined it. [Sav. Georgian.

CURE FOR THE GOITRE.—It is stated in a recent European publication, that Iodine is a very effectual cure for the goitre, when administered as medicine. Dr. Coindet, of Geneva, was led to this discovery, in part, by the reputed virtue of burnt sponge in that disagreeable disease. This substance, (Iodine,) is obtained from the ashes of sea weed. As this disease is known in some sections of our country, and particularly in certain parts of this state, the attention of medical gentlemen may perhaps be directed to the subject with benefit to their patients.

From the National Intelligencer.

The enclosed advice was presented to the President of the United States, by a person deeply interested for the honour of his country.

The public can now see how far these views of the great principles upon which the Government ought to be administered, have been pursued—when the deviation has been made—for what purposes—and what consequences have followed to himself and the country.

Every sentence of this advice will now require a commentary.

It now becomes necessary to show what were the principles upon which it was understood that the government would be administered; what opinions were entertained by the President before his election; what pledges he had given—then to consider what are the principles upon which the government has been administered; how he has changed his opinions, how he has acted according to that change: then to consider whether such an Administration is justly entitled to the confidence and the support of the American People.

ADVICE TO A PATRIOT PRESIDENT.

Put yourself at the head of the nation, and render yourself independent of parties and factions.

Declare your own ineligibility.

Recommend an amendment to the Constitution to limit the eligibility of the President to a single term.

Declare you will sign any law made by the Representatives of the People, which does not violate the Constitution.

Declare that you are in favour of a wise and judicious protection of domestic industry, and a prudent, moderate system of national improvement;

That you will preserve the purity of the other branches of the Government, Legislative and Judicial, by withholding the Executive patronage;

That you will make no appointment from Congress or the Bench to any office;

That you will permit no man to hold a place in your Cabinet, or use the influence of office, who is a candidate for the Presidency—far less two or more;

That you will take no man into your Cabinet who entertains views with regard to the Constitution, or of public policy, different from your own;

That you will destroy the monster party—always persecuting, intriguing, and selfish;

That you will select, with a proper respect for the rights of the States, men of all parties; looking only to principles, character, qualifications, and service;

That you will exercise this power with independence and impartiality, looking only to the good of the country;

That you will not lend yourselves to any man or party, nor permit any man or party to use you or your office, or its influence, for purposes or personal ambition, either to reward favorites or purchase friends;

That you will not remember the past, either for favoritism or proscription;

That you will remove no faithful public servant on account of his opinions;

That you will not permit no dictation from the heads of parties, men in power, or the editors of public journals;

That you will administer the affairs of the country committed to your charge agreeably to the dictates of your own best judgment, under the solemn obligation of the oath;

And that you will preserve the Union inviolate.

Thus you will obtain the respect and confidence of good men, advance the prosperity of the country, secure your own fame on an imperishable basis and set a noble example to those that follow you.

The American aid de camp of the Grand Duke Constantine, is not a nephew of the Ex-President Monroe, but a son of Thomas Monroe Esq. late Post-Master of Washington City. He went out to Russia under the auspices of Mr. Poleton, when Russian Ambassador to this country, and was successful in gaining the confidence of the Emperor Alexander, who attached him to his person during the remainder of his reign. RALEIGH, March 10.

A few nights ago, an infant in this city was strangled by its cap (which was rather too large) slipping off behind and getting under its body, which occasioned such a pressure of the string against the throat as to cause strangulation. Its mother awoke at a late hour in the night, and discovered the situation of the child when she immediately sent for a physician, who upon his arrival, found that all attempts at resuscitation were ineffectual.

Cure for the Consumption—Mr. John Murray, a distinguished English chemist, has published a work, inscribed to the Duke of Wellington, in which he claims to have discovered a cure for tuburcular phthisis, or far-gone consumption. This remedy the author believes, after twelve years of close observation, is found in the respiration of the vapour of Nitric Acid.

A lamp lately invented, which burns spirits of tar, has been introduced at Lincoln, which claims the commendation of all who have inspected it, for the brilliancy of its blaze, and its cheapness, 1½d. for eight hours' light, equal to 6 or 8 mould candles, with little or no trouble in trimming—Eng. paper.

A few years ago, a couple went to a country Church to be married. When, in the course of the marriage service, the Minister asked the bridegroom, in the usual form, 'Wilt thou have this woman to be thy wedded wife?' he coolly answered, 'To be sure I will, I'm come o' purpose.'—Tatler.
