

born in _____ as a mistake. (Evidently intended to say 1881, Exmpt.) Lucy has a bible which shows the ages of the children I think. but I have no record of it. Clara can read and write and she knows her own age exactly. No sir, I have not remarried since Jacob Brown died. No sir, I have not lived with any other man in marriage relations. When my husband died we were living together and keeping home with another family - Henry Hollins who has a family. Since my husband died I have had a room first in bethe home with Susan Harris at #1812 No Spring, and afterward in the house of Eugene Chase at #1825 No Spring St, where I now live. Chase has a family living in the same home and I rent just one room to sleep in, but I help pay the rent of the house and have use of the living rooms to do my work in. I take in washing and ironing and I have to go out to work two 1/2 days each week for regular customers. Lucy Brown is now living at Belair Md. with Harriet Holliday, who is her half sister. Harriet was a child of Fanny Johnson before she married Jacob Brown - a mishep!

My husband was a pensioner when he died and was receiving $6.00 per month on account of disease of eyes and head. I had known Jacob Brown about 4 or 5 years before our marriage. He had disease of eyes all the time I knew him. He told me his head and eyes were
