

JACKET No. 600

Law Office of A. PARLETT LLOYD, S. E. Cor. St. Pa and Saratoga Streets, Baltimore, Md.

Claim No. 384,444 of William P. Harris Co. G Regiment, 9th S.C.

On this day and date below written, personally appeared the affiant whose signature is hereto affixed and who being duly sworn according to law testified as follows:

"My age is 45 years, I reside in Baltimore, Md., at No. 426 S. Dullus Street,

My husband the Soldier was rendered incapable military or naval or marine service of the U.S. before his enlistment of March 31st 1864 and was discharged after his discharge of Aug. 10. 1865. He has told me of the facts constantly and explained matters to me. I know both of his former wives. The first wife Louisa died about 1869. I did not see her dead body but heard of her death at the time. I know also when Ann the second wife died which was about two years before my marriage with the Soldier. I was for intimate company with the family from my childhood. I know that my husband did not remarry after Ann's death until we married. Neither the Soldier nor myself was ever divorced the one from the other but lived together up until his death as husband & wife.

This testimony was all written in my presence from my own statements made to B. B. Freeman at the office of A. P. Lloyd of Angles that in making same I have not been aided in any way by any other person. I have no interest in this claim.

Instructions—
Read Carefully.
Under the order of the Commissioner of Pensions number 229 in the preparation of testimony in support of claims in pension cases, all statements affecting the particular case and not merely formal, must be written or prepared to be typewritten in the presence of the witness, and from his oral declarations then made to the person who then reduces the testimony to writing or then prepares the same to be typewritten. And such testimony must embody a statement by the witness that such testimony was all written or prepared for type-writing (as the case may be) in his presence, and only from his oral statements then made; stating also the time, place, and person, when, where and to whom he made such oral statements, and that in making the same he did not use, and was not aided or prompted by any written or printed statement or recital, prepared or dictated by any other person; and not attached as an exhibit to his testimony.
