Address your reply to the COMMISSIONER OF PENSIONS with return of this letter.

Washington, D.C. July 21, 1894

Sir

The claimant for pension above cited in addition to furnishing the evidence indicated in the enclosed circular, is required to show by competent testimony whether she and the soldier were ever divorced from each other.

The witnesses should state their ages, post office addresses, means of knowledge, and their credibility must appear in the jurats.

Very respectfully,

J. W. Lockman
Commissioner

A. Parlett Lloyd,
