

On this 15 day of April, 1895, at 714 Lee Street,
County of Baltimore, State of Maryland, before me,
E. A. Kearney, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally set forth in his affidavit, I have taken the following deposition from him:

but that his knowledge of the facts differing from those of James G. Freeman for veracity and credibility is good District of Baltimore, Md.
I, C. A. HALLEY, Special Examiner for the SOUTHERN DISTRICT.

The reputation of this witness for veracity and credibility is desired. The Special Examiner will make his report accordingly. He will take the witness' deposition only in the event that he shall have reason to believe that the facts within the witness' knowledge differ from those set forth in the affidavit; but, when taken, such deposition must show what the witness knows of his own personal knowledge, and his means of knowledge; and any improper practice in connection with the preparation of the affidavit and the part borne by whoever may be in fault.

Please take deposition

SETTING FORTH that Thomas J. Barrett - the claimant - incurred rheumatism, chorea, diphtheria and also in service and suffered from these diseases from discharge to the present time.

Occupation a _____ and for the City and State aforesaid, James G. Freeman, old Baltimore, Md. street, AN AFFIDAVIT and who is by _____ and in the presence of witness _____, whose post-office address is No. _____, and who is by occupation a _____, and witness _____, Street, _____, whose post-office address is No. _____

James G. Freeman, 212 Forest Street, Baltimore, Md. 8th, 1895, EXECUTE at Baltimore, Md. DID, on July Baltimore, Md.

Department of the Interior, BUREAU OF PENSIONS, Washington, D. C., Mark 18, 1895
Southern Division, Examiner, Thomas J. Barrett, Claimant, Reg. U.S.C. 59, 39, Co. 1st Reg. U.S.C. 59, Snp. No. 582, 131 No. of Claim.