Undercaptain Balto April 14th 1868

J. W. Ellinback.

Dear Sir,

This will inform you that I received a card from Mr. Pollard Lloyd claim agent stating that you wanted me to send down two witnesses who saw the Herman in my left groin during the service, I remember showing it to three or four men and asked their opinion on it, and the names of those men were Peter Banks, John Stuart, Lewis Hardin. The men not knowing who I was they thought it was a napping kernel that was during the time I was in the service after I had fallen in the trench of the fort Mc. Ladda at Williamsburg, Va. that was when we were going to regain for Gen. Ellinback when he
