

Bureau, who rules that it cannot overcome the rejections above noted, for the reason that the affiant does not describe treatment since rejection of claims nor any objective symptoms of disability. Rejection is therefore adhered to.

It is proper to add that ^{my} claim has ever been filed for hernia. In a letter filed Oct. 8, 1892, ^{incidentally} you ^{mention} hernia and injury of groin, but this does not constitute a claim.

Mr. Benjamin P. Smith
No 1112 Laurel St.
Baltimore, Md.

Same to Atty A. Parlett Lloyd.

HOFFLIGER, EXR.
Sec. A.