

26 N Calvert St-

Baltimore June 3rd 1880
Capt J. Eberhardt

Dear Sir, You know doubt remember "Josiah Cornish" who was a Corporal in your Company D. H. Regt W. S. C. 3 vol, he was wounded at "Sugar Loaf" N. C. on or about the 18th Feb 1865, in left Shoulder and breast, and was injured at Fort Stocum near Washington on or about the early part of January 1866 by being Mashed between the wheel of a caisson & breach of one of the Cannon the men were removing he was sent to Camp Hospital and was Discharged May 4th 1866. The Pension Department requires a Statement from some of the officers in Regard to the fact that the