DEPOSITION

Case of Josiah Cornish, No. 174091

On this 31 day of Oct., 1895, at Baltimore City, County of Md., before me, Thos. R. Hardwick, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Joseph H. Ambly, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says: I am 56 yrs. old.

Oyster shucker - P.O. 409 So. Dallas St. this city. I served in D & U.S.C. Inf. with Josiah Cornish who was Corporal in my company. Met him first in the service. He was caught between the brack & carriage of a cannon, at Ft. Slocum in line of duty. I think it was in 1865. I saw the accident and helped to relieve him. He had complained before of his side at Yorktown Va in 1862 in the winter. He just complained of feeling bad - yrs. since he complained of rheumatism and he appeared slow in his movements at City Point Va in 1863 in the fall. He got relieved of that. I only know it by his claiming to have it. He complained of diarrhoea at City Point Va same time in 1864. Can't tell if he had it in any other time or place in the service. Don't know anything about him having piles in service nor since. I don't remember if he had any diarrhoea at Petersburg Va.
