Q "When was it - Dr Andrieu attended your husband?"

A "I can't recollect, it was that time I tell you off"

Q "Have you any of his bills for attendance on your husband?"

A "I can't find any now"

Q "How did he treat your husband?"

A "When he first came, he ordered four pills, the next day a dose of Castor oil, with ten or fifteen drops of Opudum in it; next day, I think it was, he ordered a blister on his back, that was all, the blister drew very nicely. He came over afterward"

Q "Was that the time he had mumps?"

A "I think that was the time, he did not know he had mumps, it commenced a little lump right here on these leaders in his neck, under the ear, it grew to about the size of a hen's egg, and then it grew as large as the side of his face, as large as a saucer"

Q "What did the doctor do for the swelling?"

A "I think he had it anointed with something, I don't know what - Iodine, or something"

Q "Why should he put a blister on his back for that?"

A "Well, this thing had not come to a - no body knew anything about this, he must have been sick a week before this swelling" and further declares that he has no interest, direct or indirect, in the claim of _____ for a pension; and further saith not.
