On this _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____

County of _____

State of _____, before me,

a Special Agent of the Pension Office, personally appeared _____

, who, being by me duly sworn according to law,

declares that _____ age is _____ years, that he resides at _____

County of _____, State of _____, and that as he went ^{to} and came from his work, passing by your house, and that you were well acquainted with him during that time, and yet did not know that he was the Claimant's husband at that time?"

Ans. "I do, Sir."

59th Crof. "And do you also mean to say that he might have been the Claimant's lawful husband during all that time, and you not have known it?"

Ans. "Yes, Sir."

60th Crof. "Was he a slave then?"

Ans. "No, Sir, not as I know of."

61st Crof. "Was the lady with whom he then lived, Mrs. Jones, a slave?"

Ans. "No, Sir."

62^d Crof. "Was he a sound, healthy man during that time?"

Ans. "Yes, Sir."

63^d Crof. "Did you ever know him to have a cough, or any disease of his lungs, or of his back, or any injury to his back or side, during that time?"

Ans. "Before he went in the Army, none, Sir."

64th Crof. "When and where was it you first knew him to be sick, if ever?"

Ans. "I think it was at Petersburg, Sir, if my memory served me right."
