

46 by of benefit to the Claimant?²
 Answer, "Well, I know John Chamber was an industrious man; no drunken man; he was a sound, hearty man before he went in the Army. I was 2^d Sgt. in the same Co.; he was a good soldier, and always done his duty. I was acquainted with him until he left the Regiment to come home on furlough, I seen him after I come home home here out on Federal Hill, where we got our pay. We was paid off there, the Regiment was after we was mustered out, I saw him several times after that"

3^d interrogatory, "Do you or not know whether the Claimant and he were living as man and wife together when he enlisted?"

Answer, "Oh, yes, she used to write letters to him as his wife, and I used to read them to him and write letters to her for him, while he was in the Army. They always called each other husband and wife."

4th interrogatory, "Do you or not know whether she has remarried?"

Ans - "No, she never remarried to my knowledge, at least I never heard it, and I think I would a heard it because I don't live very far from her"

5th interrogatory, "Do you know any other matter or thing which would be of benefit to the Claimant in this cause?"

Ans - "I don't know nothing more than I told you. She is a respectable woman and a hard working woman."

and further declares that he has no interest, direct or indirect, in the claim of _____ for a pension; and further saith not.

John H Scott

Affiant

I sworn to and subscribed before me this 12th day of January 1887, and I certify that the contents were fully made known to affiant before signing.

A Morgan Esq

Special Agent.