He used to have a room and board with Mr Elias Cuyler on Dallas St - don't know the number at all. He recently went to board with Mrs Chambers, I always heard he was her cousin. But I know nothing definite. She is too good a woman to do any thing wrong of that kind. I don't believe she lives with him like he was her husband. She took that little boy you see there - Did you see him? - before he went to live there - ever since his mother died. His mother was his, Bond's, wife. She is dead. He has had his second wife. He is a younger man than her. She is a old woman. He is engaged to be married to a lady - so I heard - her name, I don't recollect her name - but she is a fine looking gal, and young. All his wives good looking women."
