Q "Was he married then?"
 A "Chambers? No, Sir"
 Q "How long was it before the war?"
 A "It was in the neighborhood of 1856"
 Q "What was Chambers physical condition then?"
 A "His health was good then - appeared strong and hearty"
 Q "What size was he?"
 A "I suppose he was about five foot - somewhat not a large man - not a thin man - a well built man"
 Q "How often from that time on to the date of his enlistment did you see him?"
 A "Sometimes two or three times a week"
 Q "How often during 1862 & 1863, did you see him?"
 A "I used to see him sometimes once, sometimes twice a week, and just before he enlisted we used to come up together from our work, where we worked in an oyster house"
 Q "Whose oyster house?"
 A "Mr Malloy's"
 Q "What was his boy's name?"
 A "Samuel Wilhelm. Don't know where he lives"
 Q "Can you not state the names and addresses of some of the men who worked with Chambers?"
 A "Thomas Jennings, E. Dallas St - Abram Augustus, Dallas St - John Bridge, dead, Samuel Griffin, Howard St"
 Q "Was Chambers ever sick of any disease to your knowledge prior to his enlistment?"
