Deposition of Andrew Bond continued

On this 18 day of 18, at County of
 State of before me,
 a Special Agent of the Pension Office, personally appeared who, being by me duly sworn according to law, declares that age is years, that he resides at County of, State of and that

A "No, Sir, not as I know of, except time he has that cramp"

Q "Tell me about that cramp?"

A "Him and me was coming from work and he took it and I came home with him, and we sent for Dr. Andru and he came, but he wasn't sick but a few days then"

Q "How was he taken and when was it?"

A "On the street, he was on our way home"

Q "How did it affect him - how did he act?"

A "He complained of such a misery in his side he could not get along without my assistance - and pains in his stomach"

Q "Did he have those pains in his side and stomach both?"

A "No, in his stomach - he did not complain of pain in his side until after he came from the war"

Q "Did you have to carry him?"

A "No, Sir, just caught hold his arm"

Q "Well, tell me now all about how the cramp you speak of affected him?"

A "I don't know any more than what I have stated"

Q "Did he have fits - did it throw him down, or otherwise prevent him from walking?"

A "No, Sir - had no fits - did not throw him - he bent over this way" witness bending forward
