- A "Yes, Sir, only time and first time"
- Q "When was that?"
- A "In fall, can't tell the year"
- Q "When was he living?"
- A "In McDermott Court"
- Q "When were you living out 1862, on February?"
- A "In Jefferson St. within a square or two of where soldier lived"
- Q "How often did you see Chambers during the month of Febry-1862?"
- A "Two or three times a week that year; could not say as to Febry"
- Q "And during that month did you not know Chambers to be sick?"
- A "I could not say positively, about that, I've been so long now I could not recollect"
- Q "Were you ever in soldier's house, or did you ever see him when he had some kind of a plaster on his back, or side?"
- A "No, Sir, never saw him with any plaster on his back, or side"
- Q "Nor did you never know of it?"
- A "No, Sir"
- Q "Nor, when he was cupped?"
- A "No, Sir, never knew he was cupped"
- Q "Never saw him when he walked with a cane, or crutches before he perished?"
- A "No, Sir, I know nothing - he worked on 3/77"
