Q "Do you know what he died of?"

A "I do not, Sir."

Q "Have you ever heard?"

A "I have not, No, Sir, I did not know the time he died."

Q "Do you know in any other way than from what he told you of his having been hurt by a limb from a tree falling upon him?"

A "No, Sir."

Q "For whom and where did he work after he was discharged?"

A "That I could not tell - every time I saw him he was doing any thing."

Q "Do you know anything about Claim - anto marriage to him?"

A "No, Sir."

Q "Do you know whether she has remarried?"

A "I do not, Sir."

Q "After he came home discharged what did he complain of?"

A "Of his back and hip, all the time."

Q "What was the matter with his hip?"

A "From the effects of that fall."

Q "What was his condition when you came home with him on furlough?"

A "Very bad indeed, He could scarcely walk, we had to get a carriage from Philadelphia depot to bring him home."
